With the Lord there is mercy!

Borrowed from Paul Turner

Making Life Miserable

If some people want to make your life miserable, they can probably succeed. Your computer can pick up a virus. Thieves can break into your home. Terrorists can gain access to public gatherings. Sometimes there is nothing you can do to stop something evil from happening.

Most enemies are anonymous and take advantage of people with a weakness they can penetrate. But other enemies are well known to us. They are people we have hurt, challenged, or offended in some way. Their reaction is completely out of line, but at least we can trace the path that explains why they do the evil they do.

Jeremiah had that kind of enemy. His prophecies took a position opposed to many of the court princes. By making people question the wisdom of their political leaders, Jeremiah was fomenting unrest. He said only what God asked him to say, but it was hugely unpopular with some people in power.

So they tried to kill him. They brought him to the edge of a large empty cistern and dropped him down on ropes into the mud. "And Jeremiah sank into the mud."

A court official appealed to the king on behalf of Jeremiah, and the king relented, giving permission for a small group to pull Jeremiah out.

If some people want to make your life miserable, they can probably succeed. But if some people want to save you, they can probably succeed too.

The Heart of Jesus Is an Open Door

Jesus does not wish his heart to be a mystery to us. Rather his heart is an open door; he wears it on his sleeve for us, so to speak. Jesus makes his heart completely available to us. He is meek, he is humble, and he makes himself vulnerable, as he is consumed by love for us and concern for our eternal destiny. In turn, we are invited to offer our devotion, to have our hearts “burn within us,” to offer consolation to Jesus and make reparation for all of our offenses and those of the whole world. He wants us to unite ourselves completely with the flow of love and mercy that pours forth from his heart.

Community Outreach Clothing Drive

The community shelters and the local Operation Stand Down facility in Johnston have requested CLEAN, used clothing for infants to adults. If you have summer or fall clothes you no longer want or have outgrown, please consider donating them.. You can bag them and drop them off at church. The poor rely on these shelters to provide clothing for their families.

If you are in The Dollar Store, pick up a TRAVEL/TRIAL size personal hygiene item such as a deodorant, toothpaste, sun screen, shaving cream, etc.and leave it in the vestry. We want to collect these trial size items for a future project. Also, if you travel and collect these trial size moisturizers, hand cream, etc but don't use them, drop them off too.

Knitters, Crocheters, Sewers

To those who have already donated prayer shawls, blankets, hats, gloves and scarves, thank you. Please continue making them so that we can build up an inventory for the colder months. As always drop off your handcrafted items at church. If you have any questions, need patterns, dimensions or would like a prayer shawl, please call Carolyn 231-5864

- Glad you are here?
- Why are you taking my seat?
