

OT-1

A reading from the book of Job

Job answered and said:

Oh, would that my words were written down!

would that they were inscribed in a record:

That with an iron chisel and with lead

they were cut in the rock forever!

But as for me, I know that my Vindicator lives, and that he will at last stand forth upon the dust;

Whom I myself shall see:

my own eyes, not another's, shall behold

him,

And from my flesh I shall see God;

My inmost being is consumed with longing,

The Word of the Lord.

(Jb 19, 1. 23-27)

OT-2

A reading from the book of proverbs:

She is a woman of strength and dignity, and has no fear of old age. When she speaks, her words are wise, and kindness is the rule for everything she says. She watches carefully all that goes on throughout her household, and is never lazy. Her children stand and bless her; so does her husband. He praises her with these words:

“There are many fine women in the world, but you are the best of them all!”

Charm can be deceptive and beauty doesn't last, but a woman who fears and reverences God shall be greatly praised. Praise her for the many fine things she does. These good deeds of hers shall bring honor and recognition from even the leaders of the nations.

The Word of the Lord

OT-3

The first reading from the Book of Proverbs:

When one finds a worthy wife, her value is far beyond pearls.

Her husband, entrusting his heart to her, has an unfailing prize.

She brings him good, and not evil, all the days of her life.

Like merchant ships, she secures her provisions from afar.

She rises while it is still night, and distributes food to her household.

She is girt about with strength, and sturdy are her arms.

She enjoys the success of her dealings; at night her lamp is undimmed.

She puts her hand to the distaff, and her fingers ply the spindle.

She reaches out her hands to the poor, and extends her arms to the needy.

She fears not the snow for her household; all her changes are doubly clothed.

She is clothed with strength and dignity, and laughs at the days to come.

She opens her mouth in wisdom, and on her tongue is kindly counsel.

She watches the conduct of her household, and eats not her food in idleness.

Her children rise up and praise her; her husband, too, extols her:

Many are the women of proven worth, but you (Mother) have excelled them all.

OT-4

A reading from the book of proverbs:

The Word of the Lord

A reading from the book of Wisdom

The souls of the just are in the hand of God, and no torment shall touch them.

They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead;

and their passing away was thought an affliction

and their going forth from us utter destruction.

But they are in peace.

For if before men, indeed, they be punished,
yet is their hope of immortality;

Chastised a little, they shall be greatly blessed,
because God tried them and found them worthy himself.

As gold in the furnace, he probed them, and as sacrificial offerings he took them to himself.

In the time of their visitation they shall shine, and shall dart about as sparks through stubble;

they shall judge nations and rule over peoples,
and the Lord shall be their King forever.

Those who trust in him shall understand truth,
and the faithful shall abide with him in love;

Because grace and mercy are with his holy ones,

And his care is with his elect.

The Word of the Lord.

A reading from the book of Wisdom

The just man, though he die early, shall be at rest,
For the age that is honorable comes not with the passing of time,
nor can it be measured in terms of years, Rather, understanding is the hoary crown from men,
and an unsullied life, the attainment of old age,
He who pleased god was loved;
he who lived among sinners was transported—Snatched away, lest wickedness pervert his mind
or deceit beguile his soul;
For the witchery of paltry things obscures
what is right and the whirl of desire transforms the innocent mind,
Having become perfect in a short whole, he reached the fullness of a long career;
for his soul was pleasing to the Lord,
therefore he sped him out of the midst of wickedness.
But the people saw and did not understand,
nor did they take this into account,

OT-8

A reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah

On this mountain the Lord of Hosts will provide for all peoples.

On this mountain he will destroy the veil that veils all peoples.

The web that is woven over all nations ;

he will destroy death forever.

The Lord God will wipe away

the tears from all faces;

The reproach of his people he will remove from the whole earth; for the Lord has spoken.

On that day it will be said:

“Behold our God, whom we look to save us!

This is the Lord for whom we looked;

let us rejoice and be glad that he has saved
us!”

The Word of the Lord

(Is 25, 6, 7-9)

A reading from the book of Lamentations

My soul is deprived of peace,
I have forgotten what happiness is;
I tell myself my future is lost,
all that I hoped for from the Lord,
The thought of my homeless poverty is wormwood and gall; Remembering it over and over leaves my soul downcast within me.
But I will call this to mind,
as my reason to have hope;
The favors of the Lord are not exhausted,
his mercies are not spent;
They are renewed each morning.
so great is his faithfulness,
My portion is the Lord, says my soul;
therefore will I hope in him.
Good is the Lord, says my soul;
to the soul that seeks him;
It is good to hope in silence for the saving help of the Lord.

The Word of the Lord

(Lam 3, 17-26)

A reading from the book of the prophet Daniel

[I, Daniel, mourned and I heard this word of the Lord:]

“At that the time there shall arise

Michael, the great prince,

guardian of your people;

It shall be a time unsurpassed in distress

since nations began until that time.

At that time your people shall escape,

everyone who is found written in the book.

Many of those who sleep

In the dust of the earth shall awake;

Some shall live forever,

others shall be an everlasting horror and disgrace.

But the wise shall shine brightly

like the splendor of the firmament,

And those who lead the many to justice shall be like the stars forever.”

The Word of the Lord.

(Dn 12, 1-3)

OT-11

A reading from the second book of Maccabees

Judas [the ruler of Israel] then took up a collection among all his soldiers, amounting to two thousand silver drachmas, which he sent to Jerusalem to provide for an expiatory sacrifice. In doing this he acted in a very excellent and novel way, inasmuch as he had resurrection of the dead in view; for if he were not expecting the fallen to rise again, it would have been useless and foolish to pray for them in death. But if he did this with a view to the splendid reward that awaits those who had gone to rest in godliness, it was a holy and pious thought. Thus he made atonement for the dead that they might be freed from this sin.
