Introduction

Thank you for answering the call of God to be a teacher of the Faith, which involves leading children closer to Christ! Catechesis is the art of teaching the Faith in order to facilitate a personal encounter with Jesus Christ. The teaching should lead to understanding who Christ is in light of God’s word (what He has revealed to us in Sacred Scripture and Sacred Tradition) in order to be changed through His grace and become more and more like Him. Transformed by the working of grace, “the Christian thus sets himself to follow Christ and learns more and more within the Church to think like Him, to judge like Him, to act in conformity with His commandments, and to hope as He invites us to” (On Catechesis in Our Time, Bl. John Paul II, 20. Hereafter CT). “The definitive aim of catechesis is to put people not only in touch but in communion, in intimacy, with Jesus Christ: only He can lead us to the love of the Father in the Spirit and make us share in the life of the Holy Trinity” (CT, 5).

How are catechists to teach in a way that leads children and young people into communion with Jesus Christ?

1. Holiness of life is essential in order for the catechist’s teaching to bring others into intimacy with Jesus Christ. Catechists must first and foremost be witnesses. “Modern man listens more willingly to witnesses than to teachers, and if he does listen to teachers, it is because they are witnesses” (Pope Paul VI, EN, 41). Thus, a parish or school catechist must first be a practicing Catholic, that is, “a Catholic in good standing who participates fully in the worship and life of the Church, and who understands and accepts the teachings of the Church and moral demands of the Gospel, as articulated in the Catechism of the Catholic Church” (Standards For Educators in Catholic Parishes and Schools, Wisconsin Catholic Conference, 2008, 3). They must also be “prepared for their apostolate by appropriate catechetical training (Diocesan Certification) and their spiritual life should be characterized by a “love of God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—and of Christ’s Church, our Holy Father, and God’s holy people,” a personal prayer life, missionary zeal, and devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary (See The National Directory for Catechesis, pp. 228-229, 231).

2. An overview of Salvation History is to be presented at the beginning of each grade. Each and every teaching of the Faith that follows should be presented in light of this Story of God’s Plan for us (The General Directory for Catechesis, 128. Hereafter, GDC). This gives students the context for all the content of our catechesis.

3. The doctrinal content of our standards and thus our overall catechesis is found in the Catechism of the Catholic Church, which is the “sure norm for teaching the Faith” (GDC, 121). All Catholic School administrators, teachers, DRE’s, CRE’s, catechists and Youth Ministers should regularly utilize the Catechism when teaching the Faith (GDC, 121).

4. The generous utilization of Sacred Scripture should have a pre-eminent position in all of our catechesis. The students need to know that the teachings of the Church flow from Sacred Scripture and Sacred Tradition which together constitute the “supreme rule of faith” (Dei Verbum, 21). When the word of God is spoken, grace is given, and students authentically encounter Jesus Christ. While forming our children in the Catholic faith is an honor and a privilege, we must also acknowledge that this task cannot be accomplished solely through the dedicated efforts of parish priests, catechists, and Catholic school teachers, but resides most importantly in the amount of time and effort parents devote to learning and practicing the faith at home.

Catechetical standards and benchmarks identify the expectations for the formation of Catholic youth and include specific grade level competencies that every youth should know and be able to demonstrate. They are intended to strengthen the partnership between the primary educators of children—the parents—and the supporting educators of children—Catholic parish and school personnel. These standards and benchmarks will assist parents and catechists to work together toward these learning competencies and the creative developing of different curriculum to ensure successful catechesis and thus, most naturally, a deeper communion and intimacy with Jesus Christ the Savior of the World.
4th Grade

Characteristics of a 4th grade Child

◊ Enthusiasm, activity and self-confidence characterize this year
◊ Steady growth physically and mentally: Developing athletic skills
◊ Become fixated and engrossed in what they love
◊ More independent and motivated than even one year prior ◊ Mood swings can occur more significantly at age 9-from timid to bold, from cheerful to grumpy
◊ Learns from observation as well as direct instruction
◊ Like to plan and know where they are going. After starting a task it brings great accomplishment for them to follow it through ◊ Starting to organize time and may develop lists or schedules
◊ Starting to apply academic skills to real life: may start to save money to buy a much wanted item
◊ Reading and writing for personal enjoyment
◊ Starting to collect things: interests are very unique and distinct
◊ Want to please adults but peer group is central in importance
◊ Not only follows rules, but sees the need and importance for them. They want others to live by the rules and become frustrated when rules are not followed
◊ Have an interest in world affairs and global situations: cultures, people, government etc
◊ Growing in awareness of Justice, and social justice issues
◊ Has an interest in preteen culture (music, movies, books etc)
◊ Continuing to develop relationships primarily with the same sex
◊ Enjoys shared experiences with family and friends

Faith & Moral Development Characteristics/Needs

◊ Because they are prone to mood swings and get emotional when they are overtaxed, adults need to be patient and understanding while encouraging them. Try not to be irritated or impatient with their emotions.
◊ Because they want to be part of the group and be accepted, they need help in learning to resolve and deal with differences and conflict among peers. They need help accepting that people may think differently-this is acceptable. Learning to love and care for those who are unique and different is a very Godly way to live.
◊ They need to be free to make choices and encouraged when they choose the virtuous and moral path
◊ They need to be encouraged in their “rule following” “obedience” tendencies to look to the church for direction and instruction. This is a great opportunity to instill following Christ’s law of love and the 10 commandments.
◊ The desire to dive into interests should also include faith related activities not just interests in pop culture: faith related books, movies, saints, devotions etc.
◊ Need to learn about global and local social ills. Need to be encouraged to participate in caring of bringing solutions to those in need ◊ Because the are “coming into their own” and are finding confidence in who they are, this is a great time to encourage them to reflect on what God might be asking them of their lives. When we form conscience it should be a reflection on “How does God want us to act”. Or when choosing a path in life, “What does God want me to be?”
◊ Need to be encouraged to participate in daily prayer: reading of scripture, learning about the saints, journaling etc

Catechetical Implications

◊ As a prime role model for the Children, the teacher of the faith needs to have a strong relationship with God through prayer and active involvement with a faith community.
◊ Catechists should be practicing Catholics in good standing with the Church
God’s Plan of Salvation History

It is very important that before you dive into the curriculum and the catechetical standards that the year be introduced by the Story. The context of the Story of salvation History will provide the proper foundation for the rest of your catechetical instruction. The Story can be taught as a one day lesson, or a week long lesson. Each teacher must make a determination of how long they will take to present the Story to the their students. Work in the Textbook should not begin until your students have their story-God’s story of Salvation History. An overview of God’s Plan of Salvation History is to be presented at the beginning of each year. Please make the presentation appropriate to the grade level.

1. God is a communion of Persons: God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. The three Persons in one God is the Blessed Trinity. God has no beginning and no end. (CCC 234, 232, 237)

2. God is our Father Who loves us and cares for us. God created each person to be united with Him. (CCC 426, 301, 759, 305, 375, 2014)

3. God created everything out of nothing. (CCC 296-298, 338)

4. God created angels as spiritual beings. Angels are God’s messengers. We all have our own personal guardian angel. Our guardian angel keeps constant, watchful care over us and guides us and protects us on our journey to God in Heaven. (CCC 328-329, 331-333, 336)

5. All of the angels were put to a test to see if they would be faithful to God. Lucifer and some of the angels completely rejected God and they became Satan and his demons. (Revelation 12:7-9) (CCC 391-395)

6. God created Adam and Eve in His image and likeness. He created Adam and Eve and the whole human race to know, love and serve Him so that we can be united with Him both here and forever in Heaven. Adam and Eve were united fully with God through sanctifying grace within their souls, a participation in God’s Divine Life. (CCC, 362-366, 356-357, 374-376, 1934)

7. Adam and Eve were put to a test to see if they would be faithful to God. Adam and Eve were tempted by Satan and they disobeyed God. The first sin of Adam and Eve (the Original Sin) separated them from God. They and all their descendents lost the union with God that they had been created for. They no longer had sanctifying grace within their souls. (CCC 396-400, 402-406, 418)

8. God alone could fix the problem of sin and reunite mankind with Himself. Thankfully, God promised a Savior (Genesis 3:15). Only the Savior could bring us back to the purpose for which we were created being united with God (communion with God). In the Old Testament, God began to form His people through Abraham. Moses was given the Law so that the people knew how to live in order to be faithful to the one true God. The Israelites could not be faithful to the God’s Law because they did not have sanctifying grace, a share in God’s life, to strengthen them. The prophets told the people to prepare for the Messiah, Who would bring about a salvation which would include all the nations. Through the Savior, God would keep His promise to reunite us with Himself as adopted children. (CCC 410-412, 420-421, 54-64, 2570-2589)

9. Jesus is God. Jesus was born as man on the first Christmas as our Savior. This is called the Incarnation. (CCC 464, 461, 463, 443-445)

10. Mary’s “yes” to God to be the Mother of Jesus made our salvation possible. Since Mary is the Mother of Jesus and Jesus is God, we rightly call Mary the Mother of God. (CCC 494-495, 497, 509, 485, 723)
11. Jesus began the foundation of the Church by preaching the Good News, instituting the seven sacraments and establishing the Church with a structure. The structure consisted of the twelve Apostles with Peter as the head. (CCC 763-766, 759, 1114)

12. Jesus suffered, died on the cross and rose on Easter Sunday. Jesus did this to save us from the power of sin and death and to reunite us with Himself. (CCC 612, 616, 619, 629, 639-640, 654)

13. The Church was born from the flow of blood and water from the open side of the crucified Christ: the water of Baptism and the Blood of the Eucharist. (CCC 766)

14. Christ’s work of redemption was accomplished primarily by His Suffering, Death, Resurrection and Ascension into Heaven. These four events are called the Paschal Mystery. (CCC 1067)

15. Forty days after the Resurrection Jesus ascended to His Father, which we celebrate on the Ascension. Ten days later, Jesus sent the Holy Spirit on Pentecost to remain with us until the end of time. (CCC 665, 731-732, 233)

16. At Pentecost the Holy Spirit strengthened the Apostles to imitate Christ. The Holy Spirit empowered them to administer the Sacraments, to teach what Jesus had taught them and to lead the Church. Pentecost is when we celebrate the public manifestation of the Catholic Church. (CCC 767, 747, 771-773, 1585, 780, 1076)

17. This was the first time that mankind received sanctifying grace, a participation in God’s Divine Life, since the original sin of Adam and Eve. We are only able to live the Christian life with the aid of supernatural grace received through the Church by the Sacraments and from actual grace through a life of daily prayer. (CCC 1226-1228, 1265-1266, 747, 1996-2000)

18. Jesus will come again in glory with the Kingdom of God in its fullness. He will judge the living and the dead and those who have chosen to follow Jesus will reign forever with Him. He will bring His Family into full union with Him and put an end to suffering and death forever. (CCC 1040, 1042-1045)
Catholic school/parish catechetical students in the Diocese of Madison will know and understand the fundamental teachings of Jesus Christ in His Church, according to the articles of our Profession of Faith.

| Section One: the Creed pertains to what God, our heavenly Father has revealed about Himself and His Plan for our Salvation (saving us from Sin) and sanctification (making us Holy) through Jesus Christ His Son by the Power of the Holy Spirit. 1. Illustrate how the following Scriptural passages are experiences of God’s love for us, our duty to love our neighbor, and our need for mercy and forgiveness:

5. Recall that at the beginning of history, Adam and Eve, tempted by Satan, disobeyed God and fell into sin. (CCC 390, 396)

Sacraments – Celebration of the Christian Mystery
Section two pertains to the way God continues to make available to us His grace won for us by Jesus’ saving Death and Resurrection. We receive God’s saving grace in the sacraments which are actions of God to bring us into communion with Him and to strengthen us to remain in communion with Him. He has given us a share in His divine life—for no other reason than He loves us. We need to respond to the grace God gives us in the Sacraments.

Catholic school/parish catechetical students in the Diocese of Madison will know and appreciate the centrality of the Eucharist and the importance of the sacraments in the life of Catholics.

G. Name, define, and describe each of the seven sacraments of the Church and will know how to participate in the celebration of each (CCC Baptism 1210-84, Confirmation 1285-1321, Eucharist 1322-1419, Reconciliation 1422-98, Anointing of the Sick 1499-1532, Holy Orders 1536-1600, Matrimony 1601-66)

Morality – Life in Christ

Section three is about how we should respond to Jesus’ love by the way we live. As his children, we should live as he has asked. The moral life is not an arbitrary list of rules, but laws of love that help us to know how to live to stay close to Jesus. Living life as Jesus asks us to live leads to true joy and peace.

Catholic school/parish catechetical students in the Diocese of Madison will understand and reflect the dignity of the human person and his vocation to freely know, love and serve God and neighbor. Vocations

From the moment of our baptism, God has a special plan for each of us. God calls us to life in Christ, in order that, with Christ, we may offer our whole life in love of God and our neighbor. At our confirmation, God strengthens and increases that the life of the Holy Spirit within us, so that we will have the inspiration and strength to respond to God’s call.

The official definition of the word vocation according to the Catechism of the Catholic Church is: The calling or destiny we have in this life and hereafter. God has created the human person to love and serve him; the fulfillment of this vocation is eternal happiness (CCC 1, 358, 1700). Christ calls the faithful to perfection and holiness (CCC 825). The Vocation of the laity consists in seeking the Kingdom of God by engaging in temporal affairs and directing them according to God’s will (CCC 898). Priestly and religious vocations are dedicated to the service of the Church as the universal sacrament of Salvation (873, 931).

In Fourth Grade the children should be taught the church’s teaching on vocations as an independent session or incorporated into a daily plan. More specifically, Children should be encouraged and assisted to pray each day to deepen their friendship and relationship with Jesus. In their friendship they are called to imitate Jesus. This is our primary vocation, to love God in Obedience and service to others through a life of Charity (holiness of life). From the moment of Baptism God has a plan for each person. Some people are called to married, some to remain single, some to the priesthood and some to the religious life (sisters and brothers).

Bible and Catechism

A Child in 4th grade should be familiar with the bible. They should know that the bible has both Old and New Testaments and should have basic knowledge of how to look up a scripture. Students should be encouraged to read the Gospels and learn more about Christ and what he did in his life. Scripture should be used with students for instruction and prayer experiences.

It is this year that they are shown a catechism for the first time. They should be told, “this is the book given to us by the Church with all the teachings that have been passed down since the Apostles.” Our goal is for the students to see this book and know generally what it is, not read it. The content of the Catechism is above a 4th grade level, therefore using the YOUCAT would be more age appropriate in 4th grade.
Prayers to Learn

Prayer After Mass

Lord Jesus Christ, take all my freedom, my memory, my understanding, and my will.
All that I have and cherish
you have given me.
I surrender it all to be guided by Your will.
Your grace and Your love
are enough for me.
Give me these, Lord Jesus,
and I ask for nothing more.
Amen.

Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided.
Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me.

Amen.

Hail Holy Queen

Hail, holy Queen,
mother of mercy,
our life, our sweetness, and our hope.
To thee do we cry,
poor banished children of Eve.
To thee do we send up our sighs mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then,
most gracious advocate,
thine eyes of mercy toward us,
and after this our exile show us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
O clement,
O loving,
O sweet Virgin Mary.

Amen

Angelus

The Angel of the Lord declared to Mary:
And she conceived of the Holy Spirit.
Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.
Behold the handmaid of the Lord: Be it done unto me according to Thy word.
Hail Mary . . .
And the Word was made Flesh: And dwelt among us.
Hail Mary . . .

Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God, that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray:
Pour forth, we beseech Thee, O Lord, Thy grace into our hearts; that we, to whom the incarnation of Christ, Thy Son, was made known by the message of an angel, may by His Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of His Resurrection, through the same Christ Our Lord.

Amen.
