Sloth, Let Us Encourage One Another
From Lenten Healing by Ken Kniepmann

“Today, I choose to fast from the sin of sloth.”

“There might not be a better place to start a Lenten fast than with the sin of sloth. We often think of sloth as being lazy, but the meaning of this sin is much deeper. St. Thomas Aquinas called sloth a sadness or ‘sorrow for spiritual good’ (Summa II:35). Sloth is much more about what goes on inside of us than about our lack of action.

“There are two easy measures for this sin in our lives. First: balance. Do you have a good balance between work, family, leisure, and prayer? Too much here and not enough there is an indicator of sloth. Second: effort. If you lack passion or enthusiasm can’t get started, can’t finish, can’t persevere in hardship, or become distracted or diverted, sloth is a likely culprit. For example, sloth will probably want you to quit this fast at some point. But persevere and make firm your resolve by working slowly through the following meditation.

Pause to hear God speak…

“The sluggard buries a hand in the dish, too weary to lift it to the mouth. In their own eyes sluggards are wiser than seven who answer with good judgment.” Proverbs 26:15-16

“We earnestly desire each of you to demonstrate the same eagerness for the fulfillment of hope until the end, so that you may not become sluggish, but imitators of those who, through faith and patience, are inheriting the promises.” Hebrews 6:11-12

“Take time to ask yourself…
What is out of balance in my life?
When do I become easily diverted or distracted from things that are important?

“Pray slowly…”
Heavenly Father,
In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, I renounce sloth and repent of all the ways in which I have operated in it. I reject every form of sloth in my life. I ask you, Father, to forgive me, and I forgive myself for my slothful heart and actions. Holy Spirit, fill me with enthusiasm, passion, and eagerness, and make me aware of any slothful thoughts, feelings, or actions.

Amen.”

“PEREZAS. VAMOS A ANIMARNOS LOS UNOS A OTROS “
Del libro “Sanación de Cuarentena” (Lenten-Healing) del autor Ken Kniepmann.

“Hoy, escucho ayunar del pecado de la pereza.”

“Puede que no haya un mejor lugar donde comenzar un ayuno de cuarentena que con el pecado de la pereza. Seguido pensamos que la pereza es estar de flojos, pero el significado de este pecado es mucho más profundo. Santo Thomas de Aquino se refiere a la pereza como una tristeza o un dolor por el bien espiritual (sacado del documento “Summa II:35”). La pereza trata mucho más de lo que entra en nosotros que de la falta de acción.

“Existe dos medidas fáciles para medir este pecado en nuestras vidas. La primera es: Balance. ¿Tienes un buen balance entre tu trabajo, tu familia, tu tiempo libre y el tiempo que le dedicas a la oración? Mucho aquí y no tanto allá es un indicador de la pereza. La segunda: Esfuerzo. Si no existe la pasión o el entusiasmo, no puedes empezar, o terminar, no perseveras en tiempos difíciles, fácilmente te distraes o te desvías de tu meta, entonces probablemente la pereza es la causa principal. Por ejemplo, la pereza te hará sentir el deseo de rendirte y dar por terminado este ayuno antes de tiempo. Pero yo te quiero animar a que perseveres y te mantengas firme trabajando despacio a través de la siguiente meditación.

Toma una pausa y deja que Dios te hable.

“El perezoso mete la mano en el plato pero se fatiga de llevárselo a la boca. El perezoso se cree más sabio que los que saben responder”. Proverbios 26:15-16

“Deseamos, sin embargo, que cada uno de ustedes siga mostrando ese mismo empeño hasta la realización final y completa de su esperanza. No sean perezosos; más bien, imiten a quienes por su fe y paciencia heredan las promesas”. Hebreos 6:11-12

Tomate tiempo para preguntarte...
¿Que está fuera de balance en tu vida?
¿Cuando te sientes que eres más propenso a distraer o a desviarte de las cosas que son importantes?

Reza despacio a la siguiente oración…
Padre Celestial,
En el nombre de nuestro Señor Jesucristo, renuncio a la pereza y me arrepiento de todo momento en el que me he dejado influenciar por ella. Rechazo ese mal espíritu de la pereza que se llegue a presentar en cualquier momento y en cualquier forma en mi vida. Te pido Señor, que me perdones, y yo me perdono por mi corazón perezoso y mis acciones perezosas. Santo Espíritu, lléname de entusiasmo, pasión, y anhelo, y ayúdate a reconocer todo pensamiento, sentimiento o acción de pereza.
Amen.

Bendiciones,
Padre Jaspers
