Parish Council Commissioning Mass This Weekend:

At today's 10:30 a.m. Mass, Fr. Herbert will commission not only the five newly-elected Parish Council members, but all members of our Council. He will bless Parish Council pins that will be given to each new member and ask Our Lord to guide all the Council members as they serve our parish for the upcoming year. Please pray for all of these parishioners as they embark on a new year of service to Annunciation.

"Get On The Bus" Speaker This Weekend:

The Archdiocese of Los Angeles sponsors an annual event called "Get on the Bus". It is a program wherein children are bussed to the prisons in which their incarcerated parents are serving time. It is an opportunity for the child and parent to reconnect and simply enjoy each other's company for a while. This weekend, we have a representative from the Archdiocese who will speak at all Masses to explain in greater detail how you can help ensure that children get this opportunity to see their parents that they are most likely missing terribly. Donations will be accepted—please be as generous as your budget allows.

Year of Mercy Indulgence:

When a penitent receives absolution in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, he or she is freed from "eternal punishment," which is the loss of communion with God. "Temporal punishment," however, remains in the form of unhealthy attachment to worldly things, and requires purification here on earth or after death, in the state called purgatory. This purification is a lifelong process of conversion to holiness, and it proceeds from fervent charity, works of mercy, prayer, and various practices of penance. Temporal punishment for one's sins can also be remitted or wiped away through the Church's doctrine and practice of indulgences. For the Jubilee Year of Mercy, Pope Francis has extended a very special plenary indulgence, which is the full remission of all temporal punishment due to sin. This plenary indulgence can be applied to oneself or to the souls of the deceased, and can be obtained by fulfilling the following conditions:

- ◆ Perform the indulgenced work, which is either passing through a designated Holy Door, or performing one of the Corporal or Spiritual Works of Mercy.
- ◆ Be in the state of grace by sacramentally confessing your sins within 20 days of performing the indulgenced act.
- ◆ Have the interior disposition of complete detachment from sin, even venial sin.
- ◆ Receive Holy Eucharist (Holy Communion is sufficient if participating in Holy Mass is not possible).
- ◆ Pray for the intentions of the Pope. An Our Father and a Hail Mary are suggested.

Seven Corporal Works of Mercy

Feed the hungry
Give drink to the thirsty
Clothe the naked
Shelter the homeless
Visit the sick
Visit the imprisoned
Bury the dead

Seven Spiritual Works of Mercy

Instruct the ignorant
Counsel the doubtful
Admonish the sinner
Bear wrongs patiently
Forgive others willingly
Comfort the afflicted
Pray for the living and the dead

Did You Know?

Summer camp is a time-honored tradition for kids. Whether it's an all-day camp or cabin sleep-away, kids can get out of the house, learn new skills, and make friends. Parents who send their kids off to camp should be sure to research the camp and the counselors who will be watching their kids. If your child is going to sleep-away camp, check in by phone or mail regularly. Ask questions and ensure that your child is safe and cared for at any camp. For a copy of the VIR-TUS article, "Summer Camp Preparation", email: jvienna@la-archdiocese.org or call (213) 637-7227.
