Msgr. O'Connell was born in County Cork, Ireland and he is one of six children. Following his graduation from high school and college, he continued his studies for the priesthood in Holland, then transferred to St. Joseph's College in London, followed by a final transfer to St. John's Seminary in Camarillo. He was ordained on May 1, 1963 by Cardinal McIntyre. Msgr. O'Connell has served in a number of parishes in the Southern California area and was elevated to Monsignor in 1978. In addition to parish work, he also served on the National Committee of Catholic Hospital Chaplains in Washington, D.C. and, in 1972, was appointed by Cardinal Manning to be the first Director of the Family Life Office for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, where he served for 15 years. Msgr. Is also a Knight of the Holy Sepulchre.

Did You Know?

Now that your children are getting ready to head back to school, it's a good time to re-familiarize yourself with the school or church property. Keep a special lookout for any rooms or areas where supervision is low, and where a predator could take a child without being noticed. During school events, these are the places to watch. You should also take note of any locked doors, areas under bleachers or in stairwells, or anywhere else suspicious. Child safety should be a priority for all events. Learn more from the VIRTUS article "Premises Safety....Always a High Priority" at <https://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>.
