Progress Update

--Rectory work continues with painting and interior window trim work. The cool and damp hindered interior work but it has picked up again thankfully.

--Queen of Peace Church saw the beginning of some of the exterior glass installation this week. It's still foreseen for the Church window-work to be completed by Easter.

--St. John the Baptist Church floors were completed this week and are truly beautiful! In the next two weeks the Altars will hopefully be wrapping up and the stored contents will begin to be put back in place. All of the pews are finished and we are awaiting a date for their being reinstalled soon as well. We will return to having Mass at Koerth on Easter Sunday morning...it seems that this is a realistic assumption (although not etched in stone just yet).

Catholic Faith Advocacy Day

The Diocese of Victoria will be participating in the Catholic Faith in Action Advocacy Day, on April 4, 2017, at the Texas Capitol in Austin. Participants from the Diocese of Victoria will join thousands of Catholics, from the 15 dioceses in Texas, to advocate for policies promoting life, justice, charity, and religious freedom and to educate our legislators and other state leaders in a better understanding about what we believe as Catholics. A select group of volunteers will also be prepared to visit with the elected state legislators who represent the ten counties of the Diocese of Victoria. If you are interested in participating please let us know ASAP. We are making plans to secure a bus if we have enough people. It will be first come first serve and the bus would leave from Victoria.

Reserve your spot by calling Father Gary Janak, Chancellor of the Diocese of Victoria, at (361)573-0828, email: chancellor@victoriadiocese.org or visit <https://victoriadiocese.org/advocacy-day> for more information.

“Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner.”

21 Regrets people confess on their deathbeds

Some of these seem all too familiar...

Aleteia-Spain December 7, 2016

We've all heard the old saying that "People on their deathbeds don't say, 'I wish I'd spent more time at work...'"

More often, people's regrets are truly about "what I have done, and what I have failed to do."

A Spanish priest, Father Nelson, has listed the sort of regrets he has often heard while accompanying the dying, and we reprint it here from our Spanish edition, with permission.

These regrets seem all too familiar to us, and the list seems well-worth keeping before our eyes, for the good of our souls, and our hearts and minds, too! We might even use this list as an examination of conscience, or to help us to pray for the grace to live in a way that might prevent our feeling these regrets later in our lives.

1. For the times when I set a bad example, and there were people who followed my lead
2. For my indifference in the face of someone's suffering

3. For failing to say so many words of praise, recognition and encouragement to those who deserved them or needed them
4. For claiming credit for my triumphs but blaming my failures on circumstances
5. For having failed to respect someone's innocence or having blocked someone's dreams
6. That I wasted money on things that I didn't need and never used
7. For the times I took too much time and not enough effort to forgive
8. For taking advantage of someone who loved me, in order to get something for myself
9. For not being careful to guide those I should have educated better, before it was too late
10. For not visiting or sharing time with people because I thought they weren't interesting, educated or useful
11. For fleeing the cross so many times
12. For savoring adulation even while knowing it was false
13. For complaining much more often than I gave thanks
14. For the stubborn, vulgar or rude words that came out of my mouth
15. For participating in conversations making fun of God, the faith or the Church
16. For wasting so much time on empty things... time that can't be gotten back
17. For the promises I didn't keep
18. For the times that I could have and should have prayed more, and above all, with more love
19. For ignoring Jesus. The solitude of Christ in the tabernacle hurts me
20. That I hurt or harmed someone in any way
21. For lacking love. I should have loved God and my neighbor much more.

"Save us, Savior of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free."
