

Twenty-Seventh Sunday
in Ordinary Time
October 7, 2019

This Sunday's Holy Scriptures

Habakkuk 1:2-3, 2:2-4
2 Timothy 1:6-8, 13-14
Luke 17:5-10

FOCUS: God's gift is not a spirit of timidity, but one of faith-filled courage. Courage lies at the heart of all our readings today – the courage to be faithful before the Lord in all things. Like the disciples, we, too, should be unafraid to ask him for an increase of faith. For Jesus reminds us that even with the smallest amount of faith, we have the capacity to do great things in his name.

LITURGY OF THE WORD:

Habakkuk complains to the Lord, who responds that what Habakkuk awaits will come in time, and the just one shall live because of his faith. Saint Paul writes to Timothy and encourages him in his faithfulness to the Gospel. In the Gospel, the Apostles say to Jesus: Increase our faith. He responds by comparing faith to the size of a mustard seed, and expounding on the role of a good servant.
