FROM THE ASSOCIATE PASTOR

COME HOLY SPIRIT!

Today we celebrate the “tongues as of fire” that came down upon the Apostles as they were “filled with the Holy Spirit.”

But why tongues of fire? The Gospels tells us that the Spirit descended “like a dove” at Jesus’ Baptism in the Jordan. Wouldn’t the image of the Holy Spirit as a dove been a clear sign for the Apostles? What does the Spirit descending like fire tell us? For this, we return to the Old Testament. The Jewish feast of Pentecost was a harvest festival, but it was also a festival of remembrance. As at Passover, when they celebrated the release from Egypt, it was at Pentecost that they remembered the giving of the Law (10 commandments) at Mount Sinai. Exodus 19:18 tells us that at the giving of the Law, “Mount Sinai was wrapped in smoke, because the Lord descended upon it in fire.” As the Lord came down in fire to give the old law, so now, the Spirit comes down in fire to place the new law in the hearts of his faithful ones. Thus fulfilling the Jeremiah’s prophecy: “I will place my law within them, and write it upon their hearts.” (Jer 31:33)

Today we open our hearts that the Spirit of the Lord may dwell within us and direct our thoughts and actions. For indeed, as Paul tells us, it is only through the Spirit that we can proclaim “Jesus is Lord!”

In Christ,
T-Père

MARY MOTHER OF VOCATIONS

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS
Jesus said to them "Come and See." They came and saw where he was staying (John 1:39).

God of all nations, we are most grateful for the first Catholic missionaries who came to Louisiana. They brought with them countless skills, talents and traditions, but their greatest treasure was their faith. May the good News of Jesus Christ, which molded and shaped their lives, continue to mold and shape our lives today. Bless our diocese with men and women who will follow in their footsteps to serve the Church as religious brothers, sisters, priests, and deacons.

Lord Jesus Christ, help to hear your call to "Come and See."

DIACONATE ORDINATION
On Saturday May 27, 10 AM, Andrew Philip Schumacher was ordained a deacon and is being assigned here for his five month internship program. Welcome Deacon Andrew

HURRICANE PRAYER FOR SAFETY

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O Loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us. Amen
