Who is my Neighbor?

When Jesus can put “Love the Lord God” on the same level as “Love your Neighbor”, we are stuck. Long before Jesus, the Old Testament concept of “neighbor” was those who were of your clan or tribe or family. Not much to worry about there.

But with Jesus all that changes. Gradually, the concept of neighbor grew. Thus, in Jesus’ time there was a great discussion as to “who is my neighbor?” Some said that the concept of neighbor had to be extended beyond the limits of race. That is why a doctor went to Jesus with the debated question: “Who is my neighbor?” Jesus replied with the parable of the Good Samaritan (Lk 10:29-37), where the neighbor was not a relative, nor a friend, but the one who approached you, independent of religion, color, race, sex or language. You must love him!

This development of a Christian view of neighbor is completely at odds with the wall and soldiers massing to the south of us. Will our Christian voice be heard today? God help us.

WORD FOR THE DAY
"Gossip needn’t be false to be evil. There’s a lot of truth that shouldn’t be passed around.” Francis Clark

A warm welcome to visitors joining us this weekend! Happy Omelette Festival!
