CHRISTIAN SERVICE CENTER 337-893-9756
There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; 1 Cor. 12:4

Oftentimes I find myself meeting folks who are not using their God-given gifts because in comparison to others, it feels too lowly or that they have nothing to give. Many Churches often lack volunteers because many of us think that we have nothing to offer.

The Holy Spirit has given you a gift, whether it leads to small behind-the-scenes work or big center-stage ministry. Each of us is entrusted with something and we are to sow and invest those gifts He has given, whether they be small or great. He gave it to you to use, for your joy, to His glory and in service of others. Don’t sit on it and don’t forget who gave it to you.

Word for the Day
“When I started counting my blessings, my whole life turned around.”
Willie Nelson

Estate Gift from Mr. Claude Melebeck, Jr.
We are very grateful to Mr. Claude Melebeck who passed away last year. He left in his will a gift to St. Mary Magdalen of $11,500. He generously also left this same amount in a gift to Vermilion Catholic and Mt. Carmel. Please remember him in your prayers.

The Church’s social teaching is a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living a life of holiness in challenges of modern society. We highlight several of the key themes that are at the heart of our Catholic social tradition.

1 Corinthians 2:4 – Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, and the same God who activates all of them in everyone. Everybody has strengths and talents. Steward/disciples know that we find optimal joy, peace and fulfillment when we are using them for Godly purposes.

What are your gifts? How are you using them?
