FROM THE PASTOR

“Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid.”

Can we hear Jesus saying these words to us? It’s often easier for us to imagine the apostles hearing this consoling command and following it, than to think of it really applying to us. After all, Jesus was standing right there with them. Can he really expect us, two thousand years later, not to be troubled by the cares of life? But the fact is that the gift Jesus was giving to his disciples, he has also given to us: “The Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name.”

Jesus told them that peace would be theirs, and it can also be ours. As we have been taught, peace is, in fact, one of the fruits of the Holy Spirit, along with love, joy, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self-control, and chastity. These fruits don’t come from us. They come from God straight into our hearts through the indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit. I remind you that it’s through our baptism and confirmation that Jesus gives us the gift of his Spirit. And then his peace, and so many other gifts can truly become ours if we open our hearts to them.

Word for the Day
“A well-taken-care of today will pave the way for a well-taken-care of tomorrow.”

FEAST OF THE ASCENSION 6/1-2

The Feast of the Ascension refers to Jesus bodily ascending to heaven. The Ascension of Jesus occurred 40 days after Easter. The Acts of the Apostles says that after the resurrection Jesus stayed with his apostles for 40 days. Afterwards, they came to the Mount of Olives from where Jesus ascended to heaven to be with God. ACTS I:1-11  * This stained glass window at St. Mary Magdalen was given in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Lasie Broussard in 1916.

STEWARDSHIP

“If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my home.” Acts 16:15

Hospitality and community go hand in hand.
God opens Lydia’s heart, and she opens her home to Paul and his companions.

How can we show a wide welcome in our worshiping communities and to the neighborhoods around us?

FOOD FOR THE POOR THANKS STMM
To the St. Mary Magdalen Family, Food for the Poor thanks you for the welcome of Fr. Thomas Bouterie on his visit to your parish. On behalf of our brothers and sisters throughout the Caribbean and Latin America, we thank you for your compassion and care. We are all blessed by your generosity.

In addition to the many individual donations given to Food for the Poor, ACTS Men and ACTS Women donated enough funds to build two homes for destitute families.

Food For The Poor-built homes are constructed to stand up to the harsh elements of the Caribbean and Latin America. For families who have only known the fear and suffering that comes from living in a makeshift hovel, or perhaps just a tent, these homes are an absolutely life-changing gift.
