Listening for God in the Bible - “Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ.” St. Jerome

This quote should send us all scurrying for our Bibles! So, why should we make regular Scripture reading part of our daily lives?

1) It is the living Word of God. Every encounter with Scripture is an encounter with Christ. When we reflect on a passage, it’s God speaking to us...today!

2) Sunday isn’t enough. At Sunday Mass we hear scripture from the Old and New Testaments, the Psalms, and in our hymns. The prayers at Mass are full of Scriptural quotes. And yet... it’s not enough. We need to take more time, reflecting on God’s word to us.

3) God’s Word keeps us grounded. It is very easy, in the midst of our busy days, to lose touch with who we are: God’s children. Taking time to read Scripture every day keeps us grounded, reminds us of who we are, that Christ is with us.

4) Scripture reminds us of God’s covenant. God made a promise to our forefathers in faith: “I will be your God, and you will be my people.” Even though we have done many things that should have destroyed that covenant, God’s promise is eternal. A covenant is unbreakable, because it is God’s truth.

5) Reading Scripture helps us to pray better. Prayer is our lifeline to God. Scripture can help us to pray better. We see ourselves reflected in the sorrow, pain, as well as the joys & faithfulness of biblical people. To enter into God’s word helps us to see, hear, feel and understand basic human responses... and then do better..... because we know God is with us. Always!

HEALING AND SALVATION

Today in Luke’s Gospel, Jesus cures ten lepers and sends them to the priest. Only a Samaritan, returns to thank Jesus for his cure and only he hears the words, “Your faith has saved you.” The psalm and Timothy remind us that salvation involves justice, kindness, and faithfulness and forever links us with Jesus. In a world as broken as ours, both healing and salvation are necessary.

The 2019 Cattle Festival was dedicated to parishioner James LeLeux for his leadership and dedication. Congratulations Jimmy!
“Although we must cherish, protect, and defend human life year-round, the Catholic Church in the United States sets aside each October as Respect Life Month.

This year’s theme, ‘Christ Our Hope: In Every Season of Life,’ is particularly suited for our times. While attacks against human life seem to grow ever more numerous and callous, we know that Christ has conquered sin and death. Through our Christian hope in the Resurrection, we are given the grace to persevere in faith.” Archbishop Joseph F. Naumann, of Kansas City, Chairman of Committee on Pro-Life Activities www.respectlife.org

REMEMBERING LOVED ONES IN NOV

Beginning with All Saints and All Souls Day, November is a month the church especially remembers the dead.

If you would like your loved ones to be remembered at church in November, place their names in the basket near the altar of St. Joseph.

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord. May they rest in peace.

Fr. Louie, Kelli and Marcello welcome new members of our parish; Kathy, Katrina, Angel, Christian, and Candace.

Catholic Considerations for Our Earthly Passing

Read the full version at respectlifeprogram.org/end-of-life-considerations.

We prepare for eternal life by choosing to love and follow God. Our journey with Christ includes equipping our consciences to make morally good judgments at the end of life. While no summary can substitute for thorough catechesis, one thing is clear: we are entrusted by God with the gift of life. This obliges us to make use of appropriate, effective medical care. The Church affirms the inviolable dignity of every person, regardless of the duration or extent of the person’s incapacity. Nothing diminishes the sanctity of a person’s life, or the obligation to protect and care for it. Those who are sick should not be alone, and, even after death, accompaniment continues by praying for those who have passed.
