FROM THE PASTOR

All the Faithful Departed

This Saturday we commemorate the faithful departed (All Souls Day – Nov. 2). We offer our spiritual trek to the cemeteries especially this week to visit the graves of loved ones. Throughout the year at each Mass, we pause to remember those who have gone before us. Often, I think about and pray for those who were closest to me, including my father, my uncles and aunts, and a host of special friends who have left this world far too soon. It’s that time of year we all pause long enough to go back even further in the family tree, or to think about friends and neighbors we have known and loved.

It is good to recall that we are not alone in our journey. During my seminary years, I was attracted by the beauty of the litany of the saints and by the idea of prayer and worship binding all the committed faithful together across the division of time and space. There really is that great cloud of witnesses joining together with us, and sometimes we can sense it very powerfully. We are supported by love and encouraged in hope. We do not fully comprehend this reality of eternal life after death, but we know that it is something greater and more powerful than anything else we have known.

We welcome Bishop Deshotel this Sunday who joins us for our annual Giant Omelette Mass and festivities. We also welcome all guests and visitors, especially our francophone friends from other countries.

Fr. Richard Rohr, O.F.M.

OUR PARISH MISSION

We the Catholic Community of St. Mary Magdalen

- Embrace our Baptismal Commitment to Christ
- Live a life of Faith, Service and Worship
- Seek to transform the world through Prayer and Evangelization

In what ways can I live out this mission?

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Where does all this history come from? The history of God’s people of prayer is always coming to light, mostly because scholars have dedicated their lives to research. They translate and ponder prayers and songs; explore the places used for worship; look at the vessels, books, and vestments; and read works from legal documents to letters and diaries. In the 1930s, Hitler’s rush to arm Germany closed seminaries as priests and seminarians alike were drafted into service.

One professor, Father Josef Jungman, forced from his classroom, spent the war years in an Austrian library. His careful work disclosed much of what we know of the history of the Mass. His great work, The Mass of the Roman Rite, describes the evolution of Eucharistic celebration and inspired generations of scholars to explore a tradition surprisingly rich and varied. It was said of him that he had a command of the past that cast new light on the present, and opened up a clear direction to the future. His contributions to the Second Vatican Council helped shape the way that we worship today. At the end of his life, in 1975, his studies completed, he told a friend that he was waiting patiently for the Lord’s knock at the door to take him to the heavenly banquet.

Donald’s Story For many people, a speeding ticket usually means a bit of embarrassment, a fine, or the inconvenience of appearing in court. But for those living in poverty, a speeding ticket can become a life-altering event. In New Orleans, Donald lost his license years ago because he was caught speeding, could not pay the fine, and could not take off work to go to court. Contempt of court citations and unlicensed driving tickets quickly compounded the initial fine. Donald was losing hope that he could clear the backlog, get a better-paying job, and support his growing family while living right above the poverty level. Thanks to your generosity to CCHD, the New Orleans Workers Center for Racial Justice (NOWCRJ) was able to provide Donald with the support he needed to change his situation. NOWCRJ hosted a clinic where Donald set up payment plans for his fines and got his license reinstated. Donald has a new job and has been able to save money to move his family an apartment of their own.

With your contributions, our brothers and sisters across the country are breaking out of the cycle of poverty. Learn more about the collection the Catholic Campaign for Human Development, usccb.org/cchd/collection
