FROM THE PASTOR

1ST SUNDAY OF LENT 2020

At that time Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert to be tempted by the devil.

At times we all struggle with the same temptations at Jesus did. Some words on this Sunday’s gospel from a favorite spiritual author, Ron Rolheiser:

“First, the devil tempted him to this effect: "If you are God’s specially blessed one, turn these stones into bread." In essence, the devil’s taunt was this: "If you believe that you are God’s specially blessed creature, why is your life so empty?" Jesus' reply, "One doesn’t live on bread alone!" Being blessed and special is not dependent upon how full or empty my life is at a given moment!

The second temptation has to do with human glory and its absence. The devil shows Jesus all the kingdoms of the world and says: "All of these will be yours if you worship me!" The taunt is: "If you’re God’s blessed one, how come you’re a big fat nobody? " And Jesus’ reply might be worded this way: "I can be a big nobody and still be God’s blessed one. Blessedness doesn’t depend upon fame, on being a household name!"

The third temptation follows the same lines: The devil takes Jesus to the top of the temple and challenges him to throw himself down to make God catch him since, in faith, it is promised that God won’t let his blessed one "dash his foot against a stone." Jesus responds. "I’ll take the stairs down, just like everyone else!" Our blessedness is not predicated on having a VIP elevator, or on having any special privileges that set us apart from others..."

Have a prayerful Lent!

STRENGTH AGAINST TEMPTATION

The first Sunday of the season of Lent always includes a Gospel account of the temptation of the Lord Jesus in the desert by the devil.

This year, the story is set against the backdrop of the first reading from Genesis, which recounts the very first temptation by the devil. That story is set in a garden of delight.

The Gospel story is set in the desert. As believers, we know that temptation comes our way in our own gardens of delight as well as the deserts of our lives.

As Lent begins, our attention is drawn to that temptation within each of us to become like God—we want control, power, and answers to all of life’s difficult questions.

As communities of faith, we are given this season of repentance so that we can join our hearts with others on the difficult journey of conversion.

We look to God and to one another for strength against temptation.

WE PRAY FOR BLESSINGS OF HEALTH
