FROM THE PASTOR

 Feast of the Most Holy Trinity **

Today on this Feast of the Solemnity of the Holy Trinity, we come to one of the most fundamental and foundational teachings of our faith, namely that we experience God as three persons: Father, his son Jesus, and the Holy Spirit. This tri-unity of three in one God is admittedly one of the hardest mysteries for us to live with. All our scriptures today gives us some insight into their relationship.

It’s in the Gospel from St. John today that we probably receive our greatest hint or clue. It is the famous line from John 3:16: “God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not die, but might have eternal life.” This is an important bible verse that every Catholic should memorize. It speaks of divine love and provides consolation and help, especially when times are challenging.

Love is what the Trinity is all about. It’s the love that God shows us in the amazing gift of Jesus, who inspires our lives through the Spirit. Do you understand this gift? How are you showing your appreciation and gratitude to God today?

 WORD FOR THE DAY **

Finding happiness is not what makes us grateful. It is gratefulness that makes us happy.

Br. David Steindl-Rast

GRACE AND ETERNAL LIFE

1ST Reading -The Lord, merciful, gracious, rich in kindness and faithfulness Ex 34:4b-6, 8-9.

Psalm -Glory and praise for ever! Daniel 3.

2ND Reading -Brothers and sisters, rejoice. Live with one another in peace, and the God of peace will be with you. 2 Corinthians 13:11-13.

Gospel -God did not send the Son to condemn the world, but to give it abundant life. John 3:16-18. The English translation of the Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass

Reflection: Moses is a man after our own hearts, for haven’t we all dealt with more than our share of stiff-necked people? Indeed, haven’t we all gotten a little stiff-necked ourselves at times? Complaining... impatient... quick to anger. How lucky for Moses—how lucky for all of us—that God is exactly the opposite! And we don’t even have to guess about it. The Lord tells us so directly. Accordingly, Moses does what we all need to do. Even with the tablets in hand, he bows down and asks for God’s forgiveness and grace.

Encouraging us to live together in peace—and in God’s favor—the Apostle Paul knows all about this grace, joyfully invoking Christ’s grace on us along with God’s love and the Holy Spirit’s. “Rejoice,” he says. And when it comes to rejoicing, John offers us the gladdest words of all: the assurance of eternal life through Jesus. © J. S. Paluch Co.

FIRST THURSDAY ADORATION

July 2TH at 7 PM we will have a Holy Hour of Adoration and Praise. Join us for this holy occasion as we pray for all.
Strictly speaking, Barnabas was not an apostle, but the title has been bestowed upon him since very early times. Born in Cyprus, he embraced the faith soon after the death of Christ, becoming a member of the original Jerusalem community. His first noteworthy deed was to sell his belongings and place the money at the feet of the apostles. It is to his lasting credit that he befriended the new convert Paul and introduced him to the apostles when everyone was still distrusting the former persecutor. He was the first to recognize Paul's potential for the cause of Christ; it was Barnabas who brought him from Tarsus to teach at Antioch. The first missionary journey about 45-48 A.D. Acts 13-14.

He was present with Paul at the Council of Jerusalem ca. 50. Barnabas went to Cyprus with Mark and thereafter is not referred to again in the Acts of the Apostles or in any other authentic source. From a remark in one of Paul’s letters we know that he lived from the work of his own hands 1 Cor. 9:5-6. The time and place of his death have not been recorded. It is claimed that his body was found at Salamina in 488 A.D. His name is mentioned in the Canon of the Mass since ancient times.

THE WILL OF GOD WILL NOT LEAD WHERE THE GRACE OF GOD WILL NOT PROTECT US

We often face tasks that seem daunting or unmanageable. In Exodus, Moses was asked to lead the “stiff necked” Israelites to the promised land, but they are troubled by their own unfaithfulness. So God joins them. They carry the Ark of the Covenant as a reminder of God’s physical presence with them as they make the difficult journey.

In John’s Gospel, we see the renewal of that covenant in Jesus who was sent to live and move amongst us and to die for our sins. Then, after Jesus’ ascension, God sent the Holy Spirit to dwell within us!

God may ask us to do some difficult work, but He never abandons us to do the work on our own. He is with us “even to the end of the age.”

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION: My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen
