FROM THE PASTOR

Baptism in Christ: From Death to New Life

At a recent Baptism, I remember speaking with the parents about how their child, through the waters of Baptism, was now called to be a light for others, a positive influence on those around, because they are now united, linked to Christ. That's the symbol of giving the child a candle, lit from the Easter Candle. To be a light for others. We imitate Christ by being the Body of Christ, and humbly offering ourselves in service to God and to others.

What does St. Paul say today? Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? So that just as Christ was raised from the dead, ... we too might live in newness of life.

These words, from his letter to the Romans, focus on: who we are and what we are called to be because of our union with Christ through baptism. We are baptized into Christ so that we can pour out our lives for others as he did. We become one-with-Christ so that we will receive and accept the challenge to be like Christ in our world.

Paul’s words are inspirational: we are to be “Christ-like” because of our baptism. This important sacrament begins our intimate relationship to Christ, and to God the Father, and the Holy Spirit. May we become “something absolutely new”, as Paul says.

Word for the Day

Let nothing dim the light that shines from within you.

Maya Angelou

CHRISTIAN HOSPITALITY

Day in and day out, we are required to make judgment calls informed by tough, durable, serviceable Christian love. We do what we can do, and God takes notice. God is in charge of rewards, and a glass of water will do when that is what we have to offer with a glad and open heart.

Paul gives us a clear theology for the missionary work we do whenever anybody is close at hand. He reminds us that our work, our ministry, is carried on in concert with Christ. We have been baptized into his death and life. In any given moment both life and death are there, a kind of play of shadow and light. Sometimes it’s difficult to tell where shadow leaves off and light begins. God will take care of that, too. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

THE CROSS AND HOPE

The cross of Christ is the true ground and chief cause of Christian hope. Pope St. Leo I

FREEDOM

Those who deny freedom to others deserve it not for themselves and under a just God cannot long retain it. Abraham Lincoln

Dear God, remove our anxiety over the Coronavirus. Help us to live in your calm and peace.
Remind us to care for ourselves so that we are not placing others at risk and then do what we can to help others.
Give our health care providers the knowledge and strength they need to care for those who need it.
Blanket us with Your Love and Grace.
In Jesus’ name we pray.
