FROM THE PASTOR

WHO IS JESUS? NO FAKE NEWS!

When Jesus today in the Gospel asks his disciples “Who do you say that I am?”, he’s not interested in hearsay or fake news. He wants to know what he means to each of his followers, personally. Peter steps up and speaks for the group: “You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God.”

Today let’s take some time to reflect on what Jesus means to each of us. Try to think of some of the people in your own life who introduced Jesus to you or helped you develop your own relationship with our Lord. Maybe have that discussion with your family today, or with a good friend. Was it a religious relative, or a teacher, a priest or religious? Was it the experience of a special retreat?

For me, Jesus takes on many different roles: consoler, comforting friend, mentor, brother. I think above all these is his role as my Good Shepherd who leads and guides me, even and especially in those times that I “walk through this dark valley.” I fear no evil, for he is there with his rod and staff to give me comfort.

Take time in prayer this week to ask: “Who is Jesus to me?”

WORD FOR THE DAY

“As we build bridges and even become bridges, we will be doing a service to the world.”
John A. Powell

21ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.” Matthew 16:19

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — Eliakim is destined by God to be a father to those who live in Jerusalem Is 22:19-23.
Psalm 138— Lord, your love is eternal; do not forsake the work of your hands.
Second Reading — How deep are the riches and the wisdom and the knowledge of God! Rm 11:33-36.
Gospel—Jesus asked the disciples, “Who do you say that I am?” Peter “You are the Christ” Mt 16:13-20.

TRUST/RESPONSIBILITY/LEADERSHIP

Keys hold great significance for those who carry them. They represent the trust and authority of the owner when given to another person. We may give our house key to a trusted friend to take care of our matters while we are away. We may give keys to someone responsible for maintaining or working in a particular building. Keys to vehicles are given to people who have proven themselves responsible drivers. The readings today focus on this kind of trust—the trust that conveys authority and responsibility. In the first reading, the symbol is specifically that of a key; but the second reading and the Gospel also speak of trust and leadership as they refer to the earthly church that Jesus established. © J. Dear God, remove our anxiety over the Coronavirus. Help us to live in your calm and peace.

Remind us to care for ourselves so that we are not placing others at risk and then do what we can to help others.

Give our health care providers the knowledge and strength they need to care for those who need it.

Blanket us with Your Love and Grace. In Jesus’ name we pray.

EWTN trip planned by St. Theresa Church, Abbeville January 21- 24, 2021

Monica had smiles for the neighbors, though her husband found her religion and the charity it inspired annoying. She made tearful prayers in private for a son, outwardly self-assured but, as his mother knew, inwardly restless, and whose girlfriend of a dozen years had borne his child out of wedlock. Though not the first or last such mother and son, Monica and Augustine are the Church’s most famous, so we keep their feast days back to back, with Monica’s, fittingly, first.

To Rome she followed Augustine, then to Milan, where years of prayer—and nagging—finally bore fruit in his conversion by Saint Ambrose. For six months, mother and son enjoyed the blessing of rediscovering each other. Just in time! On the way home to North Africa, Monica took sick and died near Rome.

At this time of the year, when parents watch apprehensively as children leave for school, may Monica’s perseverance and Augustine’s long-prayed-for conversion ease anxiety and kindle hope. Peter Scagnelli, © J. S. Paluch Co.
