Note: The Catholic Church takes marriage seriously; it is one of the seven sacraments of the Church. But the Church also realizes that we live in an imperfect world, and not everyone has been blessed with a perfect first marriage! For that reason, if you and/or your spouse have been previously married, we need to know the previous marriage history, so that we can help prepare you to enter into a sacramental marriage in the Catholic Church.

Your previous marriage history (skip if you have not been previously married):

Note: We will need this information for each previous marriage: you can copy this and fill out for each one:

Previous spouse's name: _____ Date of Birth: _____

Was spouse Baptized? No Yes Denomination: _____
