FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

PLUNGING INTO THE LIGHT

We meet in the Gospel two important protagonists who are searching for Christ.

The first is the man born blind who is not certain about what lies ahead if he puts his trust in Jesus. Nevertheless, he gamely sticks in a toe into Christ's pool of light. Then when he describes his healer as a prophet and a man "from God," he sticks his whole foot in the pool. Finally, he plunges into Christ's pool when he recognizes him as his Lord and the "Son of Man."

The second protagonists are the Pharisees who are also neophytes in swimming. They happen to live near the sea (the laws), however, and they find it difficult to accept that someone who lives far from the sea can learn to swim in the light of this so called Messiah. They try to stop the blind man from plunging into Christ's pool of light. Although they, too, are given the chance to plunge into the light, their pride and sense of self importance prevent them from doing so.

Within ourselves we find these two protagonists. Like the man born blind, we long to see the light. We wish to plunge into Christ's pool, but the Pharisees in us prevent us from accepting and revealing our need for sticking in a toe as we study the scriptures; then we can get in up to our waist by worshipping in church and participating in the rituals; and, finally, we can plunge right in by seeing Christ in our less fortunate brothers and sisters.

Lenten Prayer for Spiritual Renewal

God, heavenly Father,
look upon me and hear my prayer
during this holy Season of Lent.
By the good works You inspire,
help me to discipline my body
and to be renewed in spirit.

Without You I can do nothing.
By Your Spirit help me to know what is right and to be eager in doing Your will.
Teach me to find new life through penance.

Keep me from sin, and help me live
by Your commandment of love.
God of love, bring me back to You.
Send Your Spirit to make me strong in faith and active in good works.

May my acts of penance bring me Your forgiveness,
open my heart to Your love,
and prepare me for the coming feast
of the Resurrection of Jesus.

Lord, during this Lenten Season,
nourish me with Your Word of life
and make me one with You in love and prayer.

Fill my heart with Your love
and keep me faithful to the Gospel of Christ.
Give me the grace to rise above my human weakness.
Give me new life by Your Sacraments, especially the Mass.

Father, our source of life,
I reach out with joy to grasp Your hand;
let me walk more readily in Your ways.
Guide me in Your gentle mercy,
for left to myself I cannot do Your Will.

Father of love, source of all blessings,
help me to pass from my old life of sin
to the new life of grace.
Prepare me for the glory of Your Kingdom.
I ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son,
Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever.
