SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER (DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY)

THE DIVINE MERCY: FRUIT OF LENT AND EASTER

The Octave or Eighth Day of Easter is also known as “New Sunday” and “the birthday of salvation” (St. Gregory of Nazianzen), “the compendium of mercy” (St. Augustine), and “the second perfection of Easter” (St. Thomas Aquinas).

The on April 30, 2000, as he canonized Blessed Faustina, John Paul II named the Second Sunday of Easter as “Divine Mercy Sunday.” The Pope explained that this day is “the Sunday of Thanksgiving for all goodness that God has shown us in the whole of the Easter mystery.”

Jesus’ death and resurrection make it possible for him to breathe on the disciples and give them the Holy Spirit for the ministry of forgiveness of sins (cf vv 22-23), as Jesus promised in the farewell discourse at the first Holy Thursday (cf Jn 16:7-11). God’s merciful and forgiving love through Jesus touches Thomas first, as if to assure us that no fault or failure is too great for God.

Jesus is the Kind of Mercy by his cross and resurrection. The devotional image is that of the risen Jesus appearing before a closed door, showing the wounds of his crucifixion as he raises his right hand in a gesture of blessing as pictured in the Gospel. Risen from the dead, Jesus comes to the disciples gathered behind locked doors and greets them, “Peace be with you.”

The Feast of the Divine Mercy sums up Lent and Easter, proclaiming mercy as the perfect fruit of the whole paschal mystery of Christ’s passion, death and resurrection.

ARCHDIOCESAN ANNUAL APPEAL

Please support the Archdiocesan Annual Appeal which began on Sunday, March 5, 2017. Our parish was allocated a goal of $5,000.00.

Once called the Catholic Charities Appeal, the Archdiocesan Annual Appeal is a vital way in which the Archdiocese of Agaña led by Archbishop Michael Byrnes, receives financial support to carry out the functions, services and ministries of our Church on Guam as performed or coordinated by the Curia and Chancery offices.

Donations our Catholic faithful make to the Archdiocesan Annual Appeal contribute significantly to the overall budget of the Archdiocese which also draws from other funding sources.

Archbishop Byrnes declared the purpose of the Annual Appeal is needed to help fund the various ministries, operations and archdiocesan services of our Chancery.

Archbishop Byrnes also acknowledged the “great skepticism, distrust, question and lack of confidence” many Catholics have toward the leadership of the Archdiocese, the Curia and the Chancery during these difficult times which have seen our Church rocked by controversy, division and a growing sea of clergy sexual abuse allegations and lawsuits.

He pledged to win back the trust of the faithful and our community with “earnest hearts, greater transparency and accountability.”
