THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

For Jesus' Sake

On December 1, 1973, young Spanish Jesuit Alfredo Perez Lobato was killed in Chad, Africa at the height of the civil war. He was hit by a stray bullet while helping refugees. The story of his short life is featured in the book A Community in Blood, along with those of other Jesuits killed in different Third World countries.

Asked by his superiors why he volunteered to join the mission in Chad, Alfredo had replied: "Why do I want to go to this poor country? Its is simple: because it is difficult. I believe that I am called to the difficult and the demanding." Alfredo and others like him who search the difficult and enjoy living a life of sacrifices only so that they can have better life later on. They choose a course in college that would open lucrative opportunities in the future.

Jesus says that he who wishes to save his life will lose it. He who is willing to sacrifice his life for Jesus' sake will find it. This is the law of the gospel and this is rooted in Jesus himself. While Jesus goes around Palestine preaching the good news, sacrifice is part of his daily life. He tells a would be follower: "Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Aman has nowhere to rest his head." (Mt 8:20)

"Whoever finds his life" (v 39) applies to the rich man (cf Mk 10:17-24) who cannot break away from the confines of comfort and ease. He goes away sad because he could not follow Jesus; demand: sell everything and give the money to the poor. Jesus challenges the young man to leave the world of mediocrity and follow him, the Savior, along the road of sacrifice.

There are times when we are reluctant to help our neighbors in need. Perhaps it is because we feel that they do not deserve it. Sometimes it is because we simply do not have the motivation nor the patience to make sacrifices for others. But the gospel passage reminds us that we choose the difficult and demanding way of life not because our neighbors needs us but for Jesus' sake. A person who does things for Jesus is not easily discouraged by human ingratitude or lack of appreciation.

Please support the Archdiocesan Annual Appeal . Our parish was allocated a goal of $5,000.00. To date we have collected $4,485.00.

Archbishop Byrnes declared the purpose of the Annual Appeal is needed to help fund the various ministries, operations and archdiocesan services of our Chancery.

Archbishop Byrnes also acknowledged the “great skepticism, distrust, question and lack of confidence” many Catholics have toward the leadership of the Archdiocese, the Curia and the Chancery during these difficult times which have seen our Church rocked by controversy, division and a growing sea of clergy sexual abuse allegations and lawsuits.

He pledged to win back the trust of the faithful and our community with “earnest hearts, greater transparency and accountability.”

The Annual Appeal supports six ministries and services:

1. Safe Environment,
2. Evangelization and Faith Formation
3. Chaplaincy
4. Vocation Ministry
