SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TREASURE TROVE

Generosity is second nature to many of us. We are born with a kindness that is both part of our character and inspired by the goodness we witness around. Occasionally, practical circumstances move us to do something extra, and the desire to step in and make a difference in the life of someone in dire need propels us to greater heights. In many instances, our acts of kindness involve sharing our limited resources with others and giving out our hard-earned treasures to friends and strangers. In a genuine experience of giving, however, we must have realized that we receive something more precious than what we have given, something intangible, lasting, and strengthening.

Ordinary treasures are seen: they are the things we give to others even if we do not have enough. Real treasure, however, is invisible. It is what moves us to share our limited resources with others and open our hearts to them.

Jesus reminds us of such treasure in the Gospel. "The Kingdom of heaven," he tells us, "is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field" (v 44).

We reap what we sow (cf Gal.6:7). Our investment is really a kind of insurance policy that depends greatly on our ability to let go of something. We learn to live meaningfully and acquire a deeper sense of happiness in relation to how we deal with others and how we make use of what we have. The Kingdom of heaven may be already in us, but its treasure is yet to be found or bought (cf vv 45-46).

Despite the hardships of life, many things are available to us. We could be poor and still young, but acts of kindness are always at our disposal and within our reach. When we commit ourselves to a noble deed, we are making a choice and selecting a side—the side of principled goodness that shuns passivity and throws evil away (cf vv 47-48).

We can be as good and happy as we allow ourselves to be. We set the bar of expectation at a particular level and measure our success against it. The Lord reminds us on this: "The measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you" (Lk 6:38).

But we can achieve more and do more. Each one of us is a treasure trove of God's blessings. We have in our hands an endless supply of goodness that we can share with others. For as long as we dare to go and sell what we have—offer our life to God—we shall find a treasure more precious than gold and a life more fulfilling than our personal ambitions. It will be a treasure that gives us the strength and courage to carry out difficult tasks and the joy of finding God in others.

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FIVE AMAZING REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD ADORE THE LORD IN THE EUCHARIST

1. You are greatly needed!

"The Church and the world have a great need of eucharistic adoration." (Pope John Paul II, Dominicae Cenae)

2. This is a personal invitation to you from Jesus.

"Jesus waits for us in this sacrament of love." (Pope John Paul II, Dominicae Cenae)

3. Jesus is counting on you because the Eucharist is the center of life.

"Every member of the Church must be vigilant in seeing that the sacrament of love shall be at the center of the life of the people of God so that through all the manifestations of worship due him shall be given back 'love for love' and truly become the life of our souls." (Pope John Paul II, Redeemer of Man)

4. Your hour with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament will repair for evils of the world and bring about peace on earth.

"Let us be generous with our time in going to meet Jesus and ready to make reparation for the great evils of the world. Let your adoration never cease." (Pope John Paul II, Dominicae Cenae)

5. You grow spiritually with each moment you spend with Jesus!

"Our essential commitment in life is to preserve and advance constantly in Eucharistic life and Eucharistic piety and to grow spiritually in the climate of the Holy Eucharist." (Pope John Paul II, Redeemer of Man)

Invite your friends, family, and loved ones to visit Jesus in our adoration Chapel and experience the power of his Love and Mercy for them.

SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE: Does your marriage need Grace?

I would love to have a conversation with any couple in our parish who are civilly married or in a common law marriage and are interested in receiving the Sacrament of Marriage. I want to help you move forward in this process so you can experience the power of God's grace in the Sacrament. Please do not delay this Process. I also want to invite all those who have had their baby baptized in the church and are civilly married or are in a common law relationship to also meet with me as well. I want to help lead all couples to live in God's grace. Please contact me at the parish office or e-mail me at olbsaganaheights@gmail.com to make an appointment.

SPONSOR FORMS

If you or a relative (in the parish) was asked to be a Godparent for Baptism and/or Confirmation, please remember to have them read the rules of the Archdiocese before picking up a form. Also, please note that if I do not see you at mass, and/or know that you are NOT a regular church goer at OLBS, I will not give you a sponsorship form. As a pastor, I have to make sure that all people who want to be Godparents are in good standings with the Church. If you have any questions or concerns you can please call me or make an appointment with me by leaving a message at the parish office. Thank you.
