CHRIST AND TAXES

People have a love-hate attitude towards taxes and those who collect them. In our country, the issue of collecting—never mind, raising—taxes is always a thorny one.

In their effort to trap Jesus, the Pharisees and the Herodians find a sensitive issue in the taxes paid to Rome. The two parties are at enmity with each other: the Pharisees are staunch adherents to the Law; the Herodians, supporters of Herod and allies of the Roman power. Now they are united in a common desire to eliminate Jesus.

Devout Jews believe that they are subject to God alone. The silver denarius that they use to pay taxes not only bears the image of the Emperor Tiberius but also an inscription that Jews consider blasphemous: “Tiberius Caesar, son the Defied Augustus” it is a constant reminder of their yoke and humiliation.

The pretentious appreciation of Jesus as a teacher of “the way of God in accordance with the truth” and his independence from anyone’s opinion in a way of reminding him that he must pronounce his teaching without fear of challenging the Roman authority. The Herodians, meanwhile, are waiting to hear him forbid the paying of taxes, an act of treason to the Roman government. By limiting the answer to yes or no, they set a trap.

Jesus knows their malice. He asks for the very coin used to pay the census tax, reminding them that they are living under the Roman authority and using the currency in their daily lives. It is ironic that they use the coin Caesar minted for commercial advantage but do not want to take up the responsibility of paying taxes when a cost is involved. The coin’s inscription makes it a property seal of Caesar. He minted it. It was him. To him it must go back: “Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar.”

But more importantly, Jesus reminds his audience that they are also God’s people and are, therefore, citizens of the divine Kingdom. God has imprinted his image not on silver metal but on human beings. Created by God, human beings are his. What is therefore God’s must be given back to God.

The Gospel does not give us Jesus’s handy prescription on our responsibility towards country and God. Jesus does not point out where the boundaries between the two duties lie. This is up to everyone’s conscience. A good Christian would always know what promotes the country’s welfare. God has ordained that human rule should be established on earth, but only that it may reflect God’s own wise and loving governance and not supersede it with an uncaring and oppressive domination.

MISSION SUNDAY COLLECTION

There will be a second collection at all Masses this weekend as it is World Mission Sunday. The monies collected from the second collection will be sent to Rome. We participate in this great calling for generosity of our self and our riches.

Thank you for your contributions to World Mission Sunday.

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

1st ANNUAL OLBS HALLOWEEN TRUNK or TREAT

Tuesday, October 31, 2017
6:30 p.m.—8:30 p.m.
Fatima Hall Parking Lot

On Tuesday, October 31, 2017 our parish will be having it's First Annual Halloween "Trunk or Treat" from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

For those not familiar with Trunk or Treat, this is a version of "trick or treating", but instead of children going from door to door to collect candies, they go from trunk to trunk. This event will take place in the parking lot area in front of the Fatima Social Hall and will be save for all the kids.

We have 15 slots available for families who would like to participate by decorating the trucks of their car and ready to distribute candies to the kids' who come "trunk or treating". Please note that those participating must provide their own candies or treats.

Contact Bianca at 788-7544 or Colin at 686-0469. Thank you.
