SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Be Made Clean

While modern science and medicine have conquered the scourge, in Jesus' time leprosy is not only a dreaded physical condition but also a social cancer. Lepers are banished from family and community; they have no "announce" their condition if they must come near healthy people. The physical disfigurement and the social exclusion rob lepers of their human dignity.

Thus, the healing that Jesus effect on the leper in the Gospel must be good news not just for the person but also for his family friends, and community. This man is given back his dignity and can start life anew.

Noteworthy is the extraordinary courage the person shows in approaching Jesus. He kneels before him and pleads with all trust and faith, saying that if Jesus wills, he can cure him. And Jesus, moved with compassion and mercy, does exactly what the leper asks for. Thus, in the meeting of "horizons" and desires—the leper courage and confidence in the power of Jesus encountering Jesus' compassionate desire to liberate the person from his deplorable condition — the wondrous cleansing happens. Yet, it is not as if Jesus works only when we kneel before him; Jesus always desires to save everyone in need.

While it may be medically addressed in our days leprosy has emerged in other forms, as in discrimination, exclusion, bullying, bashing and shaming reducing many period to agony and despair. We respond to various difficulties and challenges but create at the same other destructive systems and practices.

Still, we remain grateful for people genuinely concerned with saving lives and finding possibilities for peace and communion. In hospitals, dedicated doctors, nurses, aides, attendants, and caregivers facilitate healing and wellness in people. Some others engage in dialogue and cultural exchange so that hatred, exclusion, violence, and division may be eliminated and avoided. These people mirror Jesus' merciful compassion and constant desire to heal and save.

May we all do our part, wherever we are, to continue Jesus' ministry of healing and compassion in our world.

Fellowship Sunday

Thank you all for joining us during our Fellowship Sunday last weekend and for all your generous donations. God Bless you all.

Thank you Fr. Jeff

I would like to thank Fr. Jeff for covering all masses last week at our parish while I attended the Chapter Meetings. It was a big help as we had several deaths in the parish as well as a 1st Death Anniversary Mass. Thank you Fr. Jeff. We are forever grateful.

Annual Parish Picnic

Please join us after Mass on Sunday at our Parish Picnic at Ypao Beach from 10:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. for food, fun and fellowship.

For those donating meats for the barbecue (chicken, ribs, etc.) please drop off your donation to Don Martir's residence the day before the picnic so we can prep and marinate it. Please do not bring frozen meats to the picnic.

SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

For more information, please contact Donald Martir at 777-3965, Kathy McDonald at 688-2258 or Angel Manibusan at 489-7428.

Confirmation and Pre-Confirmation students are reminded to assist with the clean up after the picnic. Thank you.

Ash Wednesday

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, February 14. Our masses will be celebrated at 7:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. and ashes will be distributed at each Mass. Although Ash Wednesday is not a Holy Day of Obligation, this is a day of obligatory fast and abstinence and we are all encouraged to attend Mass in order to mark the beginning of the Lenten season.

This is the season to humbly acknowledge our sins and open our hearts to receive the mercy and forgiveness of God.

During Lent, please note that:

- At the end of the Saturday Vigil and Sunday 7 and 9 am. Masses, we will end the mass and leave in silence. Therefore, there will be no singing by the choir as Father and the altar servers process after mass.
- During the Lenten season, there will also be no veneration of St. Jude, St. Anthony and Our Mother of Perpetual Help.

Healing Mass

We have our healing mass with Eucharistic Adoration afterwards on Friday, February 16 at 6:00 p.m.

Please invite your family and friends who are needing spiritual and physical healing.

Techa Schedule

Feb. 10—17 - Millie Artero/ Natty Calvo
