THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit

While the Trinitarian formula is found at the end of the Gospel of Matthew, the three Divine Persons are mentioned together in other places in the Gospels (e.g. Mt 3:16-17; Jn 13:13; Gal 4:6; Eph 1:13).

We Catholics believe in the Holy Trinity. We have received this from the apostolic tradition immortalized in the New Testament. Based on this doctrine, we are also taught to accept responsibility. Like the Apostles, we are commissioned to make disciples everywhere in the name of the Holy Trinity and teach them to keep Jesus' commandments.

What are these commandments? We can discern them if we go back to the life story of Jesus or reflect on the Word of God, especially the gospels. We are helped also by the homilies of our ordained ministers in the liturgy as they relate faith to life and vice versa.

In the Second Reading, we learn that the Holy Spirit unites us to God as "Abba" (daddy or papa). The Spirit unites us to God who is often perceived to be far away from us. God is a good parent, both fatherly and motherly. As children, we must recognize God's fatherhood and ourselves as God's children.

The First Reading tells us that the Father is not a weak or fainthearted parent. The Father is powerful and can overcome whatever may harm us. Though God displays a very masculine behavior as portrayed in the Old Testament, we must not stray away from the Father's embrace, to keep ourselves out of danger.

CCD Announcements

Sunday is the last day of CCD classes. We'd like to thank all the students who have been committed in attending CCD regularly as well as their parents for seeing how important for their child to receive their religious education. Thank you to all the teachers and aides for their time and effort in volunteering to teach our students. We look forward to seeing you all in August.

Adoration Chapel

“Nihī ya ta na’ māolek mona para Yu’os-ta”

“Together, let’s make it better forever for our Lord”

We would like to express our most sincere appreciation and gratitude for your contribution, dedication and sacrifice for the Lord towards our OLBS Adoration Chapel.

Although the Chapel Committee had decided to close the Adoration Chapel by the grace of God, we were able to find guardians to fill in the early morning slots that were open.

For all Chapel Guardians, just a friendly reminder of your role as guardians.

1. Please establish a list of people (preferable family and friends) who are willing to be a substitute for you if you are not able to make your hour.
2. Out of courtesy, please give people on your list, chapel committee members and/or group hour leaders at least 24 hours notice if you are not able to make it at your assigned time.
3. If you will be leaving off-island or won’t be making your adoration hour ahead of time, please ask your family and friends FIRST to substitute for you. If you are having a difficult time, then you can contact your guardian hour leader for assistance.
4. If you know that you are coming down with a cold or other illness prior to your day of adoration, please find a substitute right away.
5. Continue to invite friends, family and even co-workers to become guardians.

Thank you and God Bless You

Parking in the Back of the Chapel

Please be aware that there is a water pipe in the back of the chapel that is above the ground. It has been runned over several times and causing our water bill to rise when gone unnoticed. Therefore, please refrain from parking too close to the water faucet and the pipe that is connected to it. There are bricks in front of the pipe that are set as the boundaries. Thank you.

Corpus Christi Procession

Next Saturday

Next week we will celebrate the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ. We will have our Corpus Christi procession immediately after the Mass. We would like to thank the following parishioners who offered up their home to set up the Lanchon Corpus: Jared and Carolyn Cruz and David and Joyce Fujikawa Diamadi.

Lanchon Corpus

We are looking for volunteers who can assist and lend a helping hand as we prepare and set up the three Lanchon Corpus to get it ready in time for our Mass on Saturday, June 2nd.

The three places that you may assist to help decorate or provide supplies, plants, etc. are located at (1) The residence of Jared and Carolyn Cruz (across the church); (2) The residence of David and Joyce Fujikawa Diamadi; and (3) The garage at Father’s rectory.

If you are interested in helping out, please contact the parish office at 472-6246 and leave your name and contact number so we can provide you with further information. This is a parish event and we welcome all the help. Thank you.
