ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Kingdom of God

Jesus describes the nature of the Kingdom of God by the use of parables. The Gospel relates two, namely, the parable of the seed sown and the parable of the mustard seed. Their sowing and growth are not impressive. They start small but become big at the end. We do not notice the growth with our naked eyes.

In the First Reading, God will tear a tender shoot from the topmost part of the cedar (in Lebanon) and plant it in the mountains of Jerusalem. It is small and looks weak, but it will grow to become a majestic cedar where birds will make their nests. This is like God's Kingdom as described in the vision of the prophet Ezekiel. The people of Israel will benefit from this. Soon the exiles whom the prophet addresses will go back to their homeland.

In the Second Reading, Paul talks about his courage and that of his fellow missionaries. They are willing to leave their bodies that are comfortable to dwell in, to go home to the Lord. We can understand this as God's Kingdom in heaven, our final home.

Theologians teach us that the Kingdom of God can be here and now, though not complete or perfect. We can experience it our homes and workplaces. As Christians, we need not focus our faith only on the hereafter. We can anticipate enjoying God's Kingdom now by living authentically our faith and, concretely, by actively participating in the advancement of its values of justice, peace, charity, and prosperity.

Father's ♥ DAY ♥

Happy Father's Day

We would like to wish all fathers a "Happy Father's Day".

May fathers everywhere be faithful to the example shown in the Scriptures; steadfast in love, forgiving transgressions, sustaining the family and caring for those in need.

The role of a father is often described as a mentor, a guide, and a supportive presence when we are trying something new. For those who play a fatherly role in the lives of others, we offer this prayer of gratitude:

"Dear God,

I give thanks for fathers. I recognize the dedication and patience it takes to be a source of compassion and understanding when helping to shape a young life. Bless all fathers, especially those who are new in this sacred role. I pray they feel your presence with them. May they know that your strength and wisdom are within them, providing all they need to guide and support their children with kindness and love."

AMEN.

Peter's Pence Collection

We will have a Second Collection on the weekend of June 30th and July 1st for Peter's Pence.

The Peter's Pence Collection is a worldwide collection that supports the charitable works of Pope Francis. Funds from this collection help victims of war, oppression and natural disasters. Please take this opportunity to join Pope Francis and be a witness of charity to our suffering brothers and sisters.

"A little mercy makes the world less cold and more just."

ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Adoration Chapel

“Nihī ya ta na’ māolek mona para Yu’os-ta”

“Together, let’s make it better forever for our Lord”

We would like to express our most sincere appreciation and gratitude for your contribution, dedication and sacrifice for the Lord towards our OLBS Adoration Chapel.

Although the Chapel Committee had decided to close the Adoration Chapel by the grace of God, we were able to find guardians to fill in the early morning slots that were open.

For all Chapel Guardians, just a friendly reminder of your role as guardians.

1. Please establish a list of people (preferable family and friends) who are willing to be a substitute for you if you are not able to make your hour.
2. Out of courtesy, please give people on your list, chapel committee members and/or group hour leaders at least 24 hours notice if you are not able to make it at your assigned time.
3. If you will be leaving off-island or won’t be making your adoration hour ahead of time, please ask your family and friends FIRST to substitute for you. If you are having a difficult time, then you can contact your guardian hour leader for assistance.
4. If you know that you are coming down with a cold or other illness prior to your day of adoration, please find a substitute right away.
5. Continue to invite friends, family and even co-workers to become guardians.

Thank you and God Bless You
