FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

They Took Offense at Him

The end of the Gospel describes the people "taking offense" or being "scandalized" (Greek eskandalizonto) by what they discover to be Jesus' "true" credentials. In other words, who Jesus is does not match their expectations, and so they reject him.

On the one hand, they see his marvelous works and are amazed at his wisdom; and so, perhaps, they are expecting him to be someone special, educated, sophisticated. On the other hand, they realize he is known to them, he is their neighbor, and they know so much about him. And so, they conclude there must be something "hazy" about this person, and they choose to disregard him.

It is amazing how our prejudices and biases can affect our judgments and decisions. Stories have been told of how some people incurred so much shame and embarrassment upon discovering that the person they thought was, or treated like, the driver, turned out to be the bishop they were expecting! Yes, we often judge people by their appearance, by their gender or race, and we get into trouble.

We are told of how the town mates of Jesus are amazed at his extraordinary teaching and wisdom. This may very well bring them joy and hope. They can tell themselves, "Here is someone different, someone special; he must be God-sent." But then they are overcome by what they realize to be Jesus' background and credentials. And so the grace of God cannot work in them. As a matter of fact, this grace, ironically, becomes their downfall. If the people of Nazareth only discern who this person is whose teaching and wisdom is so extraordinary, they will arrive at the knowledge that he is the Son of God sent into the world.

Indeed, when we remain on the surface, when we do not discern the real value of persons and things, we cannot go farther, but if we learn to listen to people and take their message to heart, we open ourselves to growth and deeper meanings.

With Gratitude.....

Thank you to all who donated food items to share at last week's Fellowship. This is a nice way for parishioners to get to know one another.

Our next Fellowship Sunday is August 5, 2018.

Christian Mothers' Bake Sale

The Christian Mothers will be sponsoring a Bake Sale after all the Masses this weekend.

Proceeds from the Bake Sale will be used to purchase church/altar linens, a chalice, paten and other church items that may need to be replaced.

Thank you in advance for your support.

Parish Council Meeting

There will be a Parish Council meeting on Tuesday, July 10, 2018 at 7:00 p.m. All members are asked to attend. Thank you.

Eucharistic Healing Mass

Our parish will be having a Healing Mass on Friday, July 13 at 6:00 p.m. Please invite your family and friends who are needing spiritual and physical healing.

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

To our Chapel Guardians

"Together, let's make it better forever for our Lord"

Perpetual Adoration is a Eucharistic devotion whereby committee Catholics unite in taking hours of adoration before the Most Blessed Sacrament, both during the day and throughout the night, seven days a week.

We would like to express our most sincere appreciation and gratitude for your contribution, dedication and sacrifice for the Lord towards our OLBS Adoration Chapel.

For all Chapel Guardians, just a friendly reminder of your role as guardians.

1. Please establish a list of people (preferable family and friends) who are willing to be a substitute for you if you are not able to make your hour.
2. Out of courtesy, please give people on your list, chapel committee members and/or group hour leaders at least 24 hours notice if you are not able to make it at your assigned time.
3. If you will be leaving off-island or won't be making your adoration hour ahead of time, please ask your family and friends FIRST to substitute for you. If you are having a difficult time, then you can contact your guardian hour leader for assistance.
4. If you know that you are coming down with a cold or other illness prior to your day of adoration, please find a substitute right away.
5. Continue to invite friends, family and even co-workers to become guardians.

Please remember that signing up as a guardian for the Chapel is not just for a day, a week, a month, or a year. Rather, it is for always. It is not temporary, but ongoing, lasting, a promise or "Prumesa".

Thank you and God Bless You
