FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Sharing in Jesus' Saving Mission

The account of the missioning of the Twelve invites us to reflect on our own lives as disciples of Jesus today. Three things catch our attention in this mission that are relevant to our times: that the Apostles receive power or authority (Greek exousia) from Jesus; that they are sent two by two into the field; and that they are to be provided only the barest minimum: a staff, a pair of sandals, and a tunic.

First, the Twelve are sent in the power of Jesus; they are his representatives; they bear his name as they go around ministering. They are not fulfilling their own projects. They are co-workers of Jesus. This should be our mindset, too, as we take part in the mission of our communities, our parish, our Church: that we are not out to promote ourselves and our projects, no matter how noble these may be.

Second, the Twelve are sent in twos. No one is going out alone. Jesus knows the importance of a partner or collaborator. The mission they are to accomplish is not easy, and so each of them needs a support and companion. Nowadays, in our parishes or ministries, we do work with other people, and we understand how important it is to be ministering with others. At the same time, we realize it can be challenging, especially when our views clash or when we look at our tasks differently. And yet, we have to learn to work together, perhaps making compromises in terms of our personal desires and plans for the common good.

Third, the Twelve go out with only minimum of provisions. They are not to bring bread or money. They are expected to beg their way to support themselves, to rely on the good will of others, to rely on God's providence. Nowadays, to be sent on mission without the barest of essentials is unthinkable. In fact, the problem is how to tell people to rely on God and lighten their luggage as they embark on a mission. We plan too much, prepare too much, and so lose the value of reliance on God alone.

Whether sent to mission lands or to various ministries in the local Church, as disciples of Jesus, we continue his work of making God's love known throughout the world. May we never lose this missionary spirit, for there is still so much to be done.

Welcome to the Class of 1958

On behalf of our parish community, we would like to welcome and congratulate the Class of '58 Association on their 60th Class Reunion.

CONGRATULATIONS AND GOD BLESS YOU ALL!

Christian Mothers' Bake Sale

BAKE SALE

We would like to thank all those who donated items for the bake sale last weekend. Thank you also to all parishioners for supporting the bake sale which was a huge success.

With the $1,477 that was raised, it will be used to purchase church/altar linens, a chalice, paten and other church items that may need to be replaced.

Thank you all for your kind support and generosity.

Liberation Day

Saturday, July 21st is Liberation Day. Please note that there is mass at 7:00 a.m. and at 5:00 p.m. (Vigil Mass).

Wishing you all a Safe and Enjoyable Liberation Day!

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

To our Chapel Guardians

"Together, let's make it better forever for our Lord"

Perpetual Adoration is a Eucharistic devotion whereby committee Catholics unite in taking hours of adoration before the Most Blessed Sacrament, both during the day and throughout the night, seven days a week.

We would like to express our most sincere appreciation and gratitude for your contribution, dedication and sacrifice for the Lord towards our OLBS Adoration Chapel.

For all Chapel Guardians, just a friendly reminder of your role as guardians.

1. Please establish a list of people (preferable family and friends) who are willing to be a substitute for you if you are not able to make your hour.
2. Out of courtesy, please give people on your list, chapel committee members and/or group hour leaders at least 24 hours notice if you are not able to make it at your assigned time.
3. If you will be leaving off-island or won't be making your adoration hour ahead of time, please ask your family and friends FIRST to substitute for you. If you are having a difficult time, then you can contact your guardian hour leader for assistance.
4. If you know that you are coming down with a cold or other illness prior to your day of adoration, please find a substitute right away.
5. Continue to invite friends, family and even co-workers to become guardians.

Please remember that signing up as a guardian for the Chapel is not just for a day, a week, a month, or a year. Rather, it is for always. It is not temporary, but ongoing, lasting, a promise or "Prumesa".

Thank you and God Bless You

Parking in the Back of the Chapel

Please be aware that there is a water pipe in the back of the chapel that is above the ground. It has been runned over several times. Please kindly refrain from parking too close to the water faucet and the pipe that is connected to it. There are bricks in front of the pipe that are set as the boundaries. Thank you.

Air Conditioner Project

Thank you to all who have adopted an air conditioner, gave a one time donation and those who have supported our ongoing Air Conditioner Project by making their monthly pledge payments.

Just a friendly reminder that payments are due each month.

We are currently verifying all payments that have been made towards this project and will give a report of what was received to date in next weekend's bulletin.

Thank you for your support and God Bless You.

The Archdiocese of Agana 50th Anniversary Books

If you'd like to purchase the Archdiocese of Agana's 50th Anniversary Book, we are selling them for $10. If you are interested, stop by the parish office and pick one up. The hard cover books initially sold for $30, but we are marking it down to a special price of $10. Purchase one today.
