NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Bread Come Down From Heaven

After they had settled in Canaan, the land promised to their fathers, the Israelites would look back with awe at the gift of manna that was their ancestors' bread during the desert wandering. Manna appeared as fine flakes, like hoarfrost that appeared on the ground after the layer of dew about the camp would evaporate (cf Ex 16:13-14). Because it was a gift from the Lord, it was referred to as bread rained down from heaven (cf Ex 16:4). It was also called "the bread of the angels" (Ps 78:25). But wonderful though the manna might have been, the Israelites would get tired of it as their usual "menu."

Jesus now claims that he is "the bread that came down from heaven." For the Jews in the synagogue of Capernaum, this is a preposterous claim. Is he some kind of angel or heavenly being come down to earth? The crowd is quite sure that there is nothing mysterious about his origin: Jesus hails from Nazareth from where, according to Nathanael, nothing good is expected to come (cf Jn 1:46). He is simply Yeshua Bar-Iosef (Jesus, the son of Joseph), the son of a carpenter. How then can he say that he came down from heaven, from God himself?

John's community knows the mystery that surrounds the person of Jesus of Nazareth. As the Logos (Word), he had a pre-existence with God from the beginning. He came into the world to give life, to empower human beings to become children of God. He gives himself as "bread" so that those who believe in him may have eternal life.

Jesus, God-Incarnate, is the answer to all human need and longing. To the lost, he is the Good Shepherd; to the blind, he is the Light of the world; to the dead, he is the Resurrection and the Life; to the thirsty, he offers Living Water; and to the hungry, he is the Bread of Life.

Let us heed the Psalmist's invitation: "Taste and see that the Lord is good" (Ps 34:9).

Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. Catechetical Sunday is an opportunity for all to rededicate themselves to this mission as a community of faith.

Capuchin Franciscan Friars

Thank you to all who have supported the Capuchin Franciscan Friars. We have four young Guam Friars in formation who are currently studying in the Philippines: Brother Gavin Diego, Brother Jason Chargualaf, Brother Nicholas Martinez and Brother Austin Usar.

Having the Friars study in the Philippines is not only closer to home, but benefitting from living with the Philippine Capuchins, who have a vibrant and solid formation program, at a more affordable cost. The Friars are learning more about the Capuchin life and studying the Catholic faith in depth, with some philosophy courses to prepare them for theology studies in the future.

We ask for your continued support so that we would be able to continue sending young Friars to prepare them in their Formation.

The Capuchin Friars "THANK YOU" for your faithful support!
God Bless You All.

Become a Guardian

Our parish is blessed with a beautiful Adoration Chapel opened 24 hours a day. If you have not already signed up to be a guardian, I encourage you to spend just one hour a week with our Lord.

Saint Mother Teresa said,
"The time you spend with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the best time you will spend on earth."

Please contact the parish office at 472-6246 or stop by the office if you would like to sign up or get more information. Si Yu'os Ma'ase for your endless prayers, support and involvement for our parish.

Please DO NOT REMOVE Books or Bible from the Chapel

We remind all Guardians and visitors to our Chapel that all the books or bible that are on the Chapel bookshelf are not to be borrowed, removed or taken out of the Chapel. It is for all to use while spending time with our Lord.

There are several books that have gone missing and we ask those that have "borrowed" them to kindly return them.

Thank you for your cooperation.
