TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Thinking As God Does

“You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do.” Jesus says this to Peter who has just declared him to be the Christ. Though Peter knows more about Jesus than the ordinary people around, his knowledge of Jesus as the Messiah is not yet enough. It is not yet according to God’s mind. Peter still thinks like other Jews who expect a political Messiah and conquering warrior.

The challenge to Peter is to continue journeying with Jesus to Jerusalem so that the apostle will get Jesus right. He should not put roadblocks to the plan of God for Jesus. That is the work of Satan who is there to frustrate God’s plan.

Jesus wants to proceed to Jerusalem in obedience to God to fulfill the prophecy in Isaiah (First Reading) that says, “I gave my back to those who beat be...” Jesus is the Lord’s suffering servant. He is thinking like God.

The Second Reading invites the faithful to show their faith through works. It is not acceptable to God if believers do not help the poor in their midst. Faith that cannot feed the hungry and dress the naked is dead. God does not recognize it as faith. Christians must think like God.

Our minds as Christians must be transformed into God’s so that we can be instruments of God’s work. Thus, we need Christian formation. We should also resist our tendency to avoid sufferings. If we do not want to embrace pain, we may still be under the influence of Satan.

Catechetical Sunday

Today the Church celebrates Catechetical Sunday on September 16, 2018. The 2018 theme is “Enlisting Witnesses to Christ.”

Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. Catechetical Sunday is an opportunity for all to rededicate themselves to this mission as a community of faith.

Faith Formation (CCD Classes)

We would like to take this opportunity to welcome all of our students and catechists back to our new year of CCD classes. We thank you all for the wonderful first week of classes that we had last Sunday.
