THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Greatest Commandment

“Which is the first of all the commandments?” a scribe asks. In Jesus’ time, it is common to make queries like this. It is similar to our questions like, “Why do we pray to Mary? Is it a sin to break the Eucharistic fast? Why do we go to Confession? Why do we have images? Where do unbaptized babies go when they die?”

In the Gospel, we are not told if the scribe is just testing Jesus. But Jesus entertains the question. He is cordial; he does not comment on the man’s intent. And he gives something more in his answer.

Jesus picks up from the book of Deuteronomy (6:4-5) something that all Jews are familiar with – the Shema. The Jews recite this prayer twice a day. The First Reading says more about the commandment. It is a command not only to hear God’s voice but also to keep and observe all his commandments. We must be obedient to God.

Then Jesus draws from the less known Leviticus (19:18) and declares, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” And he adds, “There is no other commandment greater than these.” The scribe asks for the first of all the commandments; Jesus answers with two that are inseparable.

The scribe is happy with Jesus’ answer and adds his own, which the strict interpreters may not reach, “Love of God and neighbor is worth more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices” performed by the priests in the Temple.

The Second Reading recognizes Christ as a high priest (this is the only place where Christ is addressed as such) whose priesthood is superior to that of the priests in Jerusalem. Jesus’ priesthood does not pass away, while theirs dies because the Levitical priests die. Jesus practices his priesthood not in the Temple, but in heaven.

We who are baptized share in the priesthood of Christ. As priests, we are called to be number one observers of his commands.

What is Perpetual Adoration?

Perpetual Adoration is a Eucharistic devotion whereby members of a given parish unite in taking hours of adoration before the Most Blessed Sacrament (in most cases, exposed), both during the day and throughout the night, seven days a week.

Perpetual Adoration Chapel

Just one hour with the Lord can change your life. Our parish is blessed with a beautiful Adoration Chapel opened 24 hours a day. If you have not already signed up to be a guardian, I encourage you to visit our Lord in the Chapel and experience his love and presence.

Please contact the parish office at 472-6246 or stop by the office to sign up or get more information. You can also email olbs.adoration@gmail.com. Si Yu'os Ma'ase for your endless prayers, support and involvement for our parish.

How Does One Spend An Hour Before Jesus Exposed in the Blessed Sacrament?

This hour Jesus wants you to spend with Him is spent any way you want. You may bring your own prayer books, use the books in the chapel, read the Bible, pray the rosary, or just sit and relax and enjoy the sweet peace that comes from simply being in the Presence of God. You may feel that you can't pray well. Don't let this discourage you. The mere fact that you take time out at a specific time each week to spend an hour with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament pleases Him very much and is in itself a prayer of great faith. Please remember that Perpetual Adoration is a parish is not just for a day, a week, a month, or a year. Rather, it is for ALWAYS. It is not temporary, but ongoing, lasting, permanent.
