THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Contributing From Poverty

Jesus commands a poor widow for putting two small coins into the temple treasury. He is struck by the generosity of this woman who is not expected to give away her hard-earned alms, her whole livelihood. He takes her as an example of generosity.

Jesus also observes rich people giving large amounts, but he does not command them. He gives special attention to the poor widow. The priests in the Temple, on the other hand, must be happier with the hefty donations given by the affluent.

Here Jesus teaches us that God gives importance to the generous heart. It depends on the giver. We may say the poor widow exaggerates her generosity; she need not give everything. But Jesus sees something else. He does not take offense at her action. Rather for Jesus, she exemplifies generous giving. It is commendable to give from your need, not your surplus.

The First Reading presents an earlier moving story of generosity from another poor widow. The prophet Elijah comes asking her water and food. She responds that she is preparing her last meal. After this she and her son will die. Yet she accommodates Elijah because he is God-sent, and she believes that God is true to Elijah. The prophet assures her that God will take care of her and her son. He announces that the famine is about to end.

The Second Reading does not directly talk about generosity but about the sacrifice of Christ, the High Priest, offered once and for all for the forgiveness of sins.

Lack of generosity is a sign of weak faith.
