SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

THE SECOND SUNDAY
IN ADVENT:

PEACE

New Life

Baruch is offering new life to the city of Jerusalem. As former exiles to Babylon, the people of Jerusalem can be compared to a woman whose mourning is about to end. Not only will the veil covering her face be lifted, but she will be surprised by an unexpected gift. She will turn to become almost like a queen!

She will be given a cloak and a crown. She will become known to the ends of the world and brought on top of the hill. She will witness, from that vantage point, the joyful return of her children from east to west. As the lady is seated on the throne, she will witness the wonderful changes in nature. The mountains and hills will be leveled. The valleys will be filled in. Fruit trees will provide them with shade, and they will rejoice in the eternal glory of God.

Baruch's prophecy complements that of Isaiah. God will restore his people to freedom, and their lives will prosper through the ministry of John the Baptist. Throughout the whole region of the Jordan, John preaches repentance and turning away from sin. He is dressed in camel's hair and feeds on grasshoppers and locusts. John looks very different from those in the crux of history—emperor, governor, the tetrarch, and chief priests dressed in royal robes—and those clinging to positions of honor and power.

In writing to the Philippians, Paul prays that the new Christians will surpass one another in love. The apostle wants them to choose the most important thing. In the Gospel, John the Baptist underscores repentance and turning away from sin to be the most important. In this way, they can return to the Lord and receive new life from him.

SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

The Second Sunday of Advent: PEACE

The second candle of Advent is the Candle of Peace. It is sometimes called the Bethlehem Candle to remind us of the place in which preparations were made to receive the Christ child. Peace is a gift that we must be prepared for. God gives us the gift of peace when we turn to him in faith.

The prophet Isaiah calls Christ “the Prince of Peace.” Through John the Baptist and all the other prophets, God asks us to prepare our hearts so that he may come in. Our hope is in God, and in his son Jesus Christ. Our peace is found in him. We light this candle today to remind us that he brings peace to all who trust in him.

Let us pray – Loving God, we thank you for the peace you give us through Jesus Christ. Help us prepare our hearts to receive Him. Guide us in all that we say and do.

We make this prayer through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
