THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today This Scripture Passage Is Fulfilled in Your Hearing

In writing his gospel, the evangelist Luke states his intention to establish a link between the Old Covenant/ Testament and the New, with Jesus Christ as the main connection. He writes to a certain Theophilus, who may be construed as the patron who pays for the manuscripts according to the custom of his time (no printing press existed), or to "Theophilus," who in Greek means "lover of God" and may represent every Christian. The writers of the New Testament recognize the authority of the Jewish Sacred Scriptures, often referring to the "Law of Moses," to David, to the prophets, and to the Holy Spirit. Luke here quotes the prophet Isaiah: "The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me; he has sent me to bring good news to the afflicted, to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, release to the prisoners, to announce a year of favor from the Lord" (61:1-2).

Jesus is the fulfillment of the Law, the History, and the Prophets. Jesus restores the order of creation broken by the disobedience of the first man Adam; he fulfills the covenant given to Abraham and Moses; he establishes the eternal Kingdom promised to the house of David; he is the anointed and Spirit-filled prophet in the mold of Isaiah and Elijah and Elisha; he is the Messiah who will liberate the whole humanity from sin, sickness, and death. His entrance signifies the Lord's year of mercy, recalling the jubilee year wherein debts are forgiven and freedom is given to slaves and captives—a new era of total liberation for all humanity.
