SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When a Person Is Truly Blessed

There are people who seem to have everything. They are intelligent, kind, good-looking, of good family background, and socially well connected. Some families are considered blessed for the priests or religious in their clan. Others can afford to do charitable works because they and their children are financially stable. If some do not have the above-mentioned, they are said to be “cursed” or “unfortunate” (kawawa). As my mother once described struggling relatives of ours, “Kinalimutan yatang basbasan Diyosang pamilyang ‘yan.”

Is this type of valuation correct? Who, in fact, is truly blessed or cursed (if we can say that, because I firmly believe God never curses us)?

The Gospel is the shorter version of the Beatitudes from Luke. Unlike Matthew, Luke addresses the beatitudes directly to his hearers (“Blessed are you...”) and not in the third person. This makes the Lucan version more personal and direct. Also, while Matthew speaks of “the poor in spirit”, Luke speaks absolutely of the “poor”. Hence, the Lucan formulation seems to point more to material poverty (which the word “poor” primarily evokes), although he may also have other forms of poverty in mind.

In any case, those who have no security in life, those who have little or no power, will possess the Kingdom in the future. On the other hand, those who already enjoy material blessings in this life or are praised and honored, and persecute those who are poor and disadvantaged now, can only expect the opposite: woes await them.

What is the message of the Beatitudes? Two things addressed to two groups. First those who are the poor and persecuted now, especially because they are disciples of Jesus, are given hope and encouragement to endure whatever they are suffering because God will surely reward their faithfulness and perseverance. Second, those who are the cause of the sufferings of Christ’s followers (who may also be fellow disciples in Christ) are given a warning to change their lives before it is too late, as they surely will experience what the poor and the persecuted are now undergoing. There will be a reversal of fortune in the life to come.

The Secular Franciscan Order (SFO) is a religious order of Catholic lay persons who strive to live according to the example and "rule" established by St. Francis of Assisi. The fraternity members would like for you to experience the Franciscan journey with them.

Survey to Change the Sunday

9:00 a.m. Mass to 9:30 a.m.

Due to the limited number of Capuchin priests, we are looking at the possibility of changing the Sunday 9:00 a.m. Mass to 9:30 a.m. in order to have Fr. Roland cover our parish, if needed. Fr. Roland is currently the pastor assigned to St. Jude in Sinajana. With the Sunday Mass in Sinajana at 8:00 a.m., Fr. Roland will have ample time to make it to our parish if our Sunday mass is moved to 9:30 a.m. Please take the time to fill out the short survey to let us know how you feel if the mass is moved up by half and hour. THANK YOU.

PLEASE CUT OUT SURVEY AND DROP IT IN THE COLLECTION BASKET
