FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

Tempted Like Us in Every Way

The Letter to the Hebrews (cf 2:17-18; 4:15) affirms that Jesus was tested in every way, like all of us, although he did not succumb to temptation. Temptations come from the evil one, and their target is to make us fall. On the other hand, trials and tests may be allowed by God to make us strong or be purified.

The devil thinks he can trap Jesus by promising him what ordinary human beings desire: food, riches, honor. But Jesus is very strong and makes the devil realize that the things he (the devil) offers are not the most important in life, and that God is the source of everything. The devil tries to attack us where we are weakest (he tempts the hungry Jesus to turn the stone into bread), so our strategy is to be firm and steadfast, relying on the help of the Word of God and the Holy Spirit who alone can enable us to resist every form of temptation.

Are you undergoing some form of temptation? Do you rely on your strength or on the word of God and the power of the Spirit?
