FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

God's Welcoming Heart and Arms

"This man welcomes sinners and eats with them." This criticism aimed at Jesus should be an encouragement to us all. Jesus does not disdain sinners. He says elsewhere that he has come to call not the righteous but sinners to repentance (cf Mk 2:17). We do not have to be worthy for him to come to us. He welcomes us—sinners or saints—because he has come to save us.

Jesus' welcoming heart and arms make present the welcoming heart and arms of God. Notice how in the parable of the Merciful Father, the father (representing God) runs out to the prodigal son, embraces him, and has a feast prepared for him. Likewise, the father goes out to the sulking elder brother to invite him to join in the celebration.

God wants his children united in his home, celebrating a feast together with each other and with their common Father. Let us give joy to the heart of God our Father by entering his heart and joining with all our brothers and sisters in the feast that God wants all of us to share both in the Eucharist and in the heavenly banquet.
