"God has not called me to be successful,
He has called me to be faithful."

-Mother Teresa of Calcutta

Faithfulness can be as simple as sharing the light of Christ through a ministry of presence. Be faithful, share your light!

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Where Are They?

Jesus unmaskes the evil intent of the scribes and the Pharisees who present a woman caught in adultery. They ask his opinion, not just to embarrass him but to do away with him. They figure that anything Jesus will say will get him into trouble.

Jesus gives them an unexpected answer. "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her." Look who is talking! Jesus makes them admit their sinfulness in public. They have no right to harm him. Neither do they have the right to condemn their fellow sinner, the adulterous woman. Because of this, the religious leaders leave one by one.

Before and after he hurls the challenge, Jesus bends down. He will bend down again at the Last Supper when he will wash the feet of the apostles.

Jesus does not condone the sin but purifies the sinner. He does not abolish the Ten Commandments. He wants to bring out the best in us, especially in those condemned by society, by male supremacists, or by hypocrites.

The woman does not deny her sin. She waits for the rain of stones. Nothing happens; everything is quiet. Jesus asks, "Where are they?"

The woman may very well reply, "They are gone. They realize they are also sinners in need of mercy."
