PENTECOST SUNDAY

From Frightened Disciples to Courageous Apostles

The Apostles are in a pit of darkness—behind locked doors, in isolation and fear, reeling from a deep sense of loss and pain because of their Master's death and the collapse of their dreams and ambitions.

But the risen Christ appears to them, bringing them peace and reconciliation. He shows them the wounds of his passion, as identifying marks and as signs of life's triumph over death. Jesus then commissions the Apostles to the whole world and breathes on them the Holy Spirit who will transform them from frightened disciples into courageous Apostles.

We celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit on the Apostles at Pentecost. In the Acts of the Apostles, Luke sets Pentecost 50 days after Easter. He patterns this celebration after the Jewish Pentecost that is held 50 days after the feast of Passover. At Pentecost, the Jews recall the giving of the Ten Commandments to Moses on Mount Sinai. This prodigious event was marked by theophanies, like bolts of lightning, peals of thunder, strong wind, and fire.

In drawing a parallel to the Jewish Pentecost, Luke clearly shows how the Holy Spirit supersedes the law of the Old Covenant; henceforth, all laws will draw light and interpretation from the Holy Spirit. When Luke employs the images of strong wind and tongues of the fire to depict Pentecost, he is asserting the powerful action of the Holy Spirit in the lives of the Apostles and the positive change that can usher in renewal and rebirth.

The change in the Apostles is far from superficial. It is a tempest that brings about an upheaval. The Apostles take the courageous journey from selfish ambition to genuine self-giving. Their old life is "burned" by the fire of the Holy Spirit, and new life comes not only upon them but also upon the Church.

Si Yu'os Ma'ase

Perpetual Adoration Chapel

“Nihi ya ta na’ māolek mona para Yu’os-ta”

“Together, let’s make it better forever for our Lord”

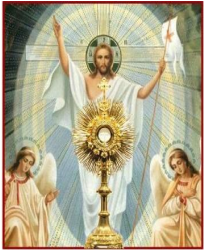

We would like to express our most sincere appreciation and gratitude for your contribution, dedication and sacrifice for the Lord towards our OLBS Adoration Chapel.

For all Chapel Guardians, just a friendly reminder of your role as guardians.

1. Please establish a list of people (preferable family and friends) who are willing to be a substitute for you if you are not able to make your hour.
2. Out of courtesy, please give people on your list, chapel committee members and/or group hour leaders at least 24 hours notice if you are not able to make it at your assigned time.
3. If you will be leaving off-island or won’t be making your adoration hour ahead of time, please ask your family and friends FIRST to substitute for you. If you are having a difficult time, then you can contact your guardian hour leader for assistance.
4. If you know that you are coming down with a cold or other illness prior to your day of adoration, please find a substitute right away.
5. Continue to invite friends, family and even co-workers to become guardians.

Thank you and God Bless You

PERPETUAL ADORATION CHAPEL

Perpetual Adoration

What is Perpetual Adoration?

Perpetual Adoration is a Eucharistic devotion whereby members of a parish unite in taking hours of adoration before the Most Blessed Sacrament (in most cases, exposed), both during the day and throughout the night, seven days a week.

Why is Exposition in the Monstrance Preferred?

To see Jesus visibly present under the appearance of the small white host is much more conducive to intimacy than hidden away in the tabernacle. Moreover, it adds an extra responsibility on the adorers to be sure to be faithful to the hours they are scheduled, since the suggested norm for having Jesus exposed in the monstrance is that there should be at least two adorers present, and He must never be left alone. Could not these words of our Lord be applied today:

"Indeed, this is the will of My heavenly Father, that everyone who looks upon the Son, and believes in Him, shall have eternal life. Him I will raise up on the last day."

How Does one Spend an Hour Before Jesus Exposed in the Blessed Sacrament?

This hour Jesus wants you to spend with Him is spent any way you want. You may bring your own prayer books, use the books in the chapel, read the Bible, pray the rosary, or just sit and relax and enjoy the sweet peace that comes from simply being in the Presence of God. You may feel that you can't pray well. Don't let this discourage you. The mere fact that you take time out at a specific time each week to spend an hour with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament pleases Him very much and is in itself a prayer of great faith.

Please remember that Perpetual Adoration in a parish is not just for a day, a week, a month, or a year. Rather, it is for always. It is not temporary, but ongoing, lasting, permanent.

Saint Mother Teresa said...

"The time you spend with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the best time you will spend on earth."
