THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY:
We Have an Eternal Home!

A God of Communion

Some people may regard the Trinity as a theological hairsplitting medieval dogma of no relevance to the ordinary Christian of today. The Holy Trinity is better appreciated in the context of the relationships among the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, and their connection with us.

The three divine Persons must not be seen in three neat and distinct compartments because their relationships intertwine and overlap, and draw us to this divine reality. The three Persons exist before time, but it is only through Jesus that God is revealed not only as Son but also as Father and Spirit.

The Father, known to be the Creator-God, is the head and paterfamilias. He sets the direction for his people and guides them through the journey. He disciplines his children and strengthens them by teaching them to learn from their mistakes. He calls them back to himself each time they wander off. He holds together everything and everyone that he has created and works not to lose anyone of them.

The Son, known to be the Redeemer, is the key in revealing God to humankind. Through his person, loyal and obedient to the Father until death, Jesus gives a human face to God by proclaiming the Gospel, curing the sick, forgiving sinners, healing the wounded, restoring broken relationships, and giving his life on the Cross. Jesus leaves behind his body as food for our journey, and he promises that if we follow him, he and the Father will make their home in us. He promises to send us his Spirit.

The Holy Spirit, known to be the Sanctifier, is thus the fulfillment of Jesus' promise. The Holy Spirit is the Divine Love formed between the Father and the Son. Through the Holy Spirit, we join in the circle of life and love, endowing us with gifts or strengths necessary for the journey. The seven special graces of the Holy Spirit are: wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord (cf Is 11:2-3).

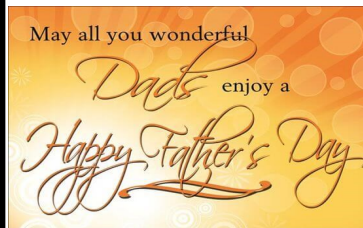

Attempts at explaining the mystery of the Holy Trinity take the way of symbols. The Trinity is depicted in a triangle (St. Patrick), three musical notes making up a single chord or sound

(St. Ignatius of Loyola), and water is found in three different forms—gas, solid, and liquid.

All these comparisons pale vis-à-vis the great mystery that is God. Our words will always be poor and inadequate. Suffice it to remember that God reveals himself to be a God of communion, who enlarges the divine Persons to welcome us to his great communion of life and love.

A Father's Day Prayer

*God our Father, through the intercessions of St. Joseph,
the foster father of Your Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ,
we give you thanks and praise for all fathers in the world.*

*We pray for them so that they may find courage and perseverance to balance work,
family and faith in joy and sacrifice.*

We remember fathers, grandfathers, and great grandfathers who are no longer with us but who will live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love.

Amen

Peter's Pence Collection

We will have a Second Collection on the weekend of June 29 and 30th for Peter's Pence.

The Peter's Pence Collection is a worldwide collection that supports the charitable works of Pope Francis. Funds from this collection help victims of war, oppression and natural disasters. Please take this opportunity to join Pope Francis and be a witness of charity to our suffering brothers and sisters.

Lanchon Corpus

If any parishioners would like to assist in lending a helping hand, we are in need of volunteers to prepare and set up the three Lanchon Corpus on Saturday, June 22nd.

The three locations that you may assist to help decorate or provide supplies, plants, etc. are located at (1) Rosie Bordallo's residence; (2) David and Joyce Fujikawa Diamadi's residence; and (3) Father's garage at the rectory.

If you are interested in helping out, please contact the parish office at 472-6246 and leave your name and contact number. This is a parish event and we welcome all the help and assistance you can provide. Thank you.

Corpus Christi Procession Next Saturday

Next week we will celebrate the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ. We will have our Corpus Christi procession immediately after the Mass. We would like to thank the following parishioners who offered up their home to set up the Lanchon Corpus: Rosie Bordallo and David & Joyce Fujikawa Diamadi and we would like to thank the Christian Mothers for setting up in the garage at the rectory.
