THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Give Them Some Food Yourselfes

What Jesus intends to be a quiet time between him and the disciples is disrupted by the crowds that trail them behind to Bethsaida. They follow him, bringing along their sick relatives. Jesus adjusts his plans and welcomes to their circle people who are in need.

The Twelve do not imbibe Jesus' goodwill and generosity for the people. They suggest that Jesus send the crowd away; they do not want to get involved any further. By their reckoning, they have already done enough.

Having healed the sick the whole day, Jesus has compassion for the people and asks the Twelve to give them something to eat. The Apostles find the situation impossible. But Jesus takes their very meager resources (five loaves and two fish), looks up to heaven, blesses and breaks them, and gives them to the disciples to set before the crowd. They all eat and are satisfied, with 12 baskets of leftovers gathered.

Jesus will repeat his actions at the Last Supper, and these will be the basis for the Eucharist. Jesus emphasizes that sacrificial self-giving is more important than the quantity or material value of our offerings. God's miracles happen only when we are involved. Whatever small blessings we possess can be an instrument of God's miracle if put in the hands of Jesus.

People often say that they do not have much to offer since they are poor. What Jesus does is meant to banish such illusion. For him, each one of us is important, and if Jesus were to make present-day miracles, he would always involve the contribution of everyone.

The Aetas of Sierra Madre live by a wonderful adage: "I have a half ganta of rice; enough for so many, but not enough for one person." How true indeed is the saying that there is always enough for everybody's need but never enough for everyone's greed.

Perpetual Adoration Chapel

"Nihi ya ta na' māolek mona para Yu'os-ta"

"Together, let's make it better forever for our Lord"

Perpetual Adoration is a Eucharistic devotion whereby committee Catholics unite in taking hours of adoration before the Most Blessed Sacrament, both during the day and throughout the night, seven days a week.

We would like to express our most sincere appreciation and gratitude for your contribution, dedication and sacrifice for the Lord towards our OLBS Adoration Chapel.

For all Chapel Guardians, just a friendly reminder of your role as guardians.

1. Please establish a list of people (preferable family and friends) who are willing to be a substitute for you if you are not able to make your hour.
2. Out of courtesy, please give people on your list, chapel committee members and/or group hour leaders at least 24 hours notice if you are not able to make it at your assigned time.
3. If you will be leaving off-island or won't be making your adoration hour ahead of time, please ask your family and friends FIRST to substitute for you. If you are having a difficult time, then you can contact your guardian hour leader for assistance.
4. If you know that you are coming down with a cold or other illness prior to your day of adoration, please find a substitute right away.
5. Continue to invite friends, family and even co-workers to become guardians.

Please remember that signing up as a guardian for the Chapel is not just for a day, a week, a month, or a year. Rather, it is for always. It is not temporary, but ongoing, lasting, a promise or "Prumesa".

Thank you and God Bless You
