THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus Makes a Detour

The violent stance taken by James and John against Samaritan inhospitality is a natural human reaction. They howl for revenge and want to call down fire on the entire village. The two brothers, nicknamed "Sons of Thunder," belong to the inner circle of Jesus. Even if they do not as yet comprehend Jesus' mission, they can somehow identify with Jesus and his plan to proceed to Jerusalem. Thus, when the emissaries are turned away, James and John rail against the Samaritans. To their mind, any obstacle on the way of Jesus' mission must be obliterated.

Jesus hardens his countenance, turns his face like flint towards Jerusalem, in his resolute determination to go to the Holy City. Rather than bluster his way through the Samaritan village, Jesus quietly makes a detour. His non-confrontational demeanor delivers a powerful teaching to his apostles who are adept at making a show of muscle and force. Jesus walks the way of humility and peace rather than arrogance and violence.

The Samaritan inhospitality is not totally unexpected. The Jews and the Samaritans have a long history of strained relationships and are like water and oil. The Jews look down on the Jewish people of Samaria and consider them impure (half-Jews) since they intermarried with so-called pagans. The Jews also rejected the help offered by the half-Jews to rebuild the Temple, so the latter built their own Temple at Mount Gerizim, thus making the division among believers more pronounced.

Jesus makes a final attempt to reach out and gather the scattered children of Israel. He decides to be prudent, which is the better part of valor, by sending messengers ahead of him to the Samaritan village. On his final journey to Jerusalem, Jesus takes the chance to share the Good News with the Samaritans, but once rejected, he walks quietly away.

On his final journey to Jerusalem, Jesus feels the increasing weight of his mission and sees that the most part of this will be pain. It is not the ordinary pain one gets from a throb or a twinge, but one of the torment and torture. It is pain experienced in the sum of one's humanity—physical, spiritual, psychological, moral, and beyond. As Jesus walks towards Jerusalem, he is bludgeoned by pain in its entirety, but he will choose to transform this monumental amount of pain into a sacrifice of love. To him, will be no shirking from the Cross, Jesus is prepared to give everything to the last drop.

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Perpetual Adoration Chapel

"Nihi ya ta na' māolek mona para Yu'os-ta"

"Together, let's make it better forever for our Lord"

Perpetual Adoration is a Eucharistic devotion whereby committee Catholics unite in taking hours of adoration before the Most Blessed Sacrament, both during the day and throughout the night, seven days a week.

We would like to express our most sincere appreciation and gratitude for your contribution, dedication and sacrifice for the Lord towards our OLBS Adoration Chapel.

For all Chapel Guardians, just a friendly reminder of your role as guardians.

1. Please establish a list of people (preferable family and friends) who are willing to be a substitute for you if you are not able to make your hour.
2. Out of courtesy, please give people on your list, chapel committee members and/or group hour leaders at least 24 hours notice if you are not able to make it at your assigned time.
3. If you will be leaving off-island or won't be making your adoration hour ahead of time, please ask your family and friends FIRST to substitute for you. If you are having a difficult time, then you can contact your guardian hour leader for assistance.
4. If you know that you are coming down with a cold or other illness prior to your day of adoration, please find a substitute right away.
5. Continue to invite friends, family and even co-workers to become guardians.

Please remember that signing up as a guardian for the Chapel is not just for a day, a week, a month, or a year. Rather, it is for always. It is not temporary, but ongoing, lasting, a promise or "Prumesa".

Thank you and God Bless You
