Hebrews 4:7

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Happy the poor in spirit:
theirs is the kingdom of heaven

Matthew 5:3

You Fool!

The Gospel is located in the middle of Jesus' teaching on how his disciples should see worldly wealth. When someone asks him to arbitrate in an inheritance case, Jesus warns, "Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions" (v 15). After telling the parable of the Rich Fool, Jesus will invite the crowd to trust God who provides for all his creatures (cf Lk 12:22-34).

In the eyes of the world, the rich man in the parable is competent and wise: he has succeeded in accumulating riches for himself. In the eyes of God, however, he is a foolish man who does not know what life is all about. He denies the existence of God not so much by his words as by the way he lives. He amasses wealth and desires more only to be able to lead a carefree, luxurious, even dissipated life. He does not realize that life is a gift of God who will one day ask everyone to account for the way the gift is used.

When God suddenly confronts him with the reality of death, the rich man is exposed for what he truly is: foolish and poor. He will lose all his material wealth in death and because he is also poor in the matters of the spirit, he will come empty-handed before God.

Jesus says, "Where your treasure is, there also will your heart be" (Lk 12:34). Who or what are your treasures? Do these lead you to or away from God and neighbor?
