TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Total Availability and Commitment

For anyone who wishes to become his disciples, Jesus demands total dependence on God providence. It is natural for anyone who embarks on a project to do the calculations whether his resources would be enough to finish it. But in the project of life for his disciples, what Jesus demands is total availability and commitment. God will provide for all the rest.

Many founders of religious congregations started with an initial inspiration to do something for God's people. God multiplied their efforts and sent more people to accomplish God's project. After all, it is God's work, and God means to accomplish it. What is needed is the commitment and perseverance on our part as disciples of Jesus.

Paul, writing to the Philippians, gives us his experience to learn from. "Whatever gains I had, these I have come to consider a loss because of Christ. More than that, I even consider everything as a loss because of the supreme good of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have accepted the loss of all things and I consider them so much rubbish, that I may gain Christ... It is not that I have already taken hold of it or have already attained perfect maturity, but continue my pursuit in hope that I may possess it, since I have indeed been taken possession of by Christ... forgetting what lies behind but straining forward to what lies ahead, I continue my pursuit toward the goal, the prize of God's upward calling, in Christ Jesus" (Phil 3:7-14).
