TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Rich Man and Lazarus

The problem with the rich man—traditionally called Dives, Latin for “rich”—is not that he is rich, or that he has acquired his wealth by dishonest means, or that he is rude and cruel towards Lazarus. He is condemned because he chose to ignore Lazarus. He knew of Lazarus’ existence since, finding himself in a place of torment, he recognizes him and calls him by name.

Dives was perfectly aware of Lazarus’ miserable condition. Every day from the front terrace of his great mansion, he could spot him at his gate. But Dives did not care. He had his fine clothes and his daily sumptuous banquets. These occupied all his attention.

For the rich man who did not care for his brother, the complete reversal of fate in the afterlife is now upon him. For those who showed no concern, do you think God will care?

Do we look down on some people because they are manual workers, uneducated or illiterate, ugly or unpopular? Some people never smile or speak kind words to janitors, tricycle drivers, waiters, or beggars.

On the last day, when divine justice is given, the Lord will say, “Whatever you did to the least of my brothers, you did to me. Since you recognized me in your brothers, welcome to paradise.” Or the Lord may say, “Sorry, since you did not know your brothers in need, I don’t know you.”
