TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Thanking and Remembering

One healed leper, a Samaritan, returns to thank Jesus. The point of the story is the importance of giving thanks (in Greek, eucharisteo, very similar to the Eucharist, which is a thanksgiving prayer).

When Jesus heals the ten lepers, he tells them to present themselves to the priests in Jerusalem. When one of them realizes he has been healed along the way, he goes back to Jesus to thank him. They were not told to do so, but this man does it spontaneously. The Samaritan sees something more than his miraculous healing. He sees God in Jesus. He has the eyes of faith. His faith contributes to his healing.

The nine proceed to the Temple. Are the nine ungrateful because they do not return to Jesus? Not necessarily. They proceed to the priests to inform them of their healing. The priests must deduce that an extraordinary guy is on this way to Jerusalem. They will soon see him. They must rethink their stance about their faith and religion, when they encounter him.

We may presume that the nine are also thankful to God for their healing. They are again allowed to worship with the community, singing psalms of thanksgiving.

We must acknowledge God's countless blessings and gifts of healing for us. Gratitude is one way to be pleasing to God.

In the Second Reading, Paul reminds Timothy to remember Jesus Christ, who has done so much more. Jesus gave his life on the Cross that we may obtain not just healing but salvation. Thanking Jesus is remembering him.

Blessing and Commissioning of CCD Teachers

Catechists from our parish will be commissioned at the 9:00 a.m. Mass on Sunday, October 13, 2019. CCD Coordinators, Teachers and their aides are asked to attend.

To our Catechists who are called to echo God's word, we thank you for your dedication to teach Jesus' Gospel and help our parish children grow in their faith and love of God and his Church. God gives us amazing grace when we answer God's call to carry on the joyful mission to teach as Jesus did. Our volunteers are one of our greatest assets and we are very grateful for the gift of themselves, their time and talent.

Please keep our teachers and aides in your prayers as they work to fulfill the calling and the mission they have embraced with love and devotion.

We pray for all of our children and families, so that they may come not only to know the faith, but to live the faith through their words, their works, and their participation in our parish community, most especially in the Sunday Eucharist.

We look forward to a wonderful, blessed and fruitful Catechetical year!
