2 SAT ALL SOULS' DAY NO 7 AM MASS

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“For Everyone Who Exalts Himself Will be Humbled”

To be justified before God, Jesus tell us, we must approach God with humility, mindful only of our sinfulness.

The Pharisee uses prayer to exalt himself. In his prayer (if we can call it prayer), he boasts to God of his compliance to the prescriptions of the law. God rejects this kind of prayer. The Pharisee goes away unjustified.

We are all sinners in the eyes of God. We cannot take pride in anything but our sins. Our contributions in the church cannot be used to get more credit or recognition.

God rejects prayers that put other people down. In praying, we must exercise charity to others even only in our thoughts.

Paul is acceptable to God when he prays because of his humility. He does not boast of his accomplishments. He seeks to be righteous. He is confident that he will see the Lord. Being righteous does not assure him of freedom from harm. Paul still feels persecuted and deserted by his friends. In his suffering, he acknowledges God who sustains him. His survival means that God’s message will spread all the more.

In the First Reading, Sirach describes the Lord as a God of justice who hears the cry of the oppressed, the wail of the orphan, the complaint of the widow, and the prayer of the lowly.

In our prayer, let us present to God our miseries, our frustrations, and our sins rather than our little accomplishments that are often only for compliance or for “photo ops.” God sides with those who are disadvantaged and who recognize their sins and beg God’s forgiveness for them.
