32nd Sunday
IN ORDINARY TIME

Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury."

- Mk 12:43

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

God of the Living

The Sadducees are a party or group within Judaism in the New Testament period. The party is composed of the priestly aristocracy and their dependents and supporters. The Sadducees accept only the written Torah and totally reject the oral, or traditions held by the Pharisees. Since they claim that there is no reference to the resurrection in the written Torah, they do not believe in it. Neither do they accept the existence of angels and spirits which they take as innovations imported from Zoroastrianism.

In their debate with Jesus, the Sadducees present a hypothetical question about a woman with seven successive husbands. This is rooted in the Levirate law of Moses that requires a man to marry his brother's childless widow. The firstborn son she bears shall continue the line of the deceased brother (cf Dt 25:5-10). This law seeks to guarantee family continuity, centered on this-worldly existence. How will a woman in this case live with seven husbands simultaneously—if indeed there is resurrection and the age to come? The Sadducees imply that this will put the Law of Moses to ridicule.

Jesus' riposte explains that the life to come is not exactly a continuation of life in this world. Here, human beings marry and reproduce to ensure the continuity of the human race. But those found worthy of the resurrection are immortal, like angels. They are "children" [sons] of God," which is a favorite Old Testament name for angels. Finally, he disproves the non-existence of the dead by his interpretation of the written Law. The fact that Moses called "Lord" the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob means that somehow God sustains the patriarchs in the "age to come." They are alive in God, since only the living can have a God, and God calls himself the God of the patriarchs.
