THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Signs of the Messiah

Jesus tells the disciples of John the Baptist to report to the prophet who is in prison that the One whom he baptized in the River Jordan, with the Holy Spirit descending on him in the form of a dove, is truly the Messiah. They do not have to look for another. The proofs can be seen in the blind regaining their sight, the lame walking, and the sick being healed. These are the signs of the presence of the Messiah and the coming of God's Kingdom. These miracles and the proclamation of the Kingdom should be sufficient to comfort John in his cell in Macherus. His efforts to prepare for the coming of the Messiah have not been in vain.

The prophet Isaiah (First Reading) exhorts the Israelites to rejoice because the Lord himself is coming to bring salvation to his people. His presence will put an end to oppression. He will restore justice on earth.

In the Gospel, Jesus is working round the clock. He fulfills the prophecy of Isaiah, bringing healing to the lame, the blind, the lepers, and many other sick people.

The Second Reading teaches the Christians to be patient over the delay of the Lord's second coming. Christians should not become irritable.

If we cannot wait patiently, we will be sorry forever. There will be no joy in our hearts. Even if the Lord comes, his coming will have not meaning for us.

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

"Rejoice: the Lord is nigh." As Christmas draws near, the Church emphasizes the joy which should be in our hearts over all that the birth of our Savior means for us. The great joy of Christians is to see the day drawing nigh when the Lord will come again in His glory to lead them into His kingdom. The oft-repeated Veni ("Come") of Advent is an echo not only of the prophets but also of the conclusion of the Apocalypse of St. John: "Come, Lord Jesus," the last words of the New Testament.

Today is known as Gaudete Sunday. The term Gaudete refers to the first word of the Entrance Antiphon, "Rejoice". Rose vestments are worn to emphasize our joy that Christmas is near, and we also light the rose candle on our Advent wreath.
